VOLUME TWENTY — PORTSMOUTH OHIO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1913. — PRICE THREE CENTS

DYNAMITE EXPLODED DURING GRAND RAPIDS FIRE, SCORE INJURED

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—More than a score of persons were injured, none seriously, in a panic stricken rush for safety today when gunpowder and dynamite in the burning Vandeveen building in the business section exploded and scattered debris over several blocks. The fire spread to other buildings and destroyed them, including the Grand Rapids Savings bank. The loss is $200,000.

Chicago Women Boycott All Eggs

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Representatives of the women's clubs and the wholesale egg dealers in the city met to discuss the price of eggs which the women claim has attained an artificial altitude. Eggs, strictly fresh, are selling at 45 and 46 cents per dozen and the women of 96 clubs of Chicago have pledged themselves to boycott them until the price is reduced to 32 cents.

"We have the men who control the egg market on the run," announced Mrs. Caroline Bly, who organized the boycott, today. "We will tell them at a conference later today that we will never budge until the price of eggs is reduced down to 32 cents."

WALL STREET FIRMS QUIT BUSINESS

New York, Nov. 29.—Four exchange firms announced their dissolution today. The business of the firms will be continued under a reorganization of partnership. The others, it is understood, will wind up their affairs permanently. A large number of partnership dissolutions is expected at the end of the year. Many firms in Wall street have reduced the price of stocks on the exchange from $90,000,000 to less than half that amount and have made it difficult for many stock brokers to earn a living. Trading in stocks for the months just ended was the smallest since 1897.

POLICE WERE ORDERED TO STOP RIOTING

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 29.—The first police orders to prevent disorder incident to the unsettled labor conditions in Indianapolis were given by Acting Superintendent of Police Coffin when the police appeared at roll call.

The patrolmen were instructed to prevent the congregating on the streets of crowds. They were told that three or more constituted a crowd. During the past few months many riots have occurred here when large numbers have been allowed to congregate on street corners.

Woman To Be Tried

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 29.—A jury was impaneled today for the trial of Miss May Copeland and her fiance, Lucien Cuik, for the alleged murder of Hugh Atchinson, husband of the girl's sister, near Hardwell last July. The court room was packed this afternoon.

HOUSE QUITS UNTIL NEW SESSION

Washington, Nov. 29.—The first session of the third congress came to a sudden end so far as the house was concerned at 12:55 p. m. No agreement had been made with senate leaders for a recess until Monday so the house leaders determined to act on their own initiative as was done in 1903. "When the house meets Monday," said Speaker Clark, "I will announce that under the constitution the second session of the third congress has assembled and we will begin work under that order."

The senate plans to recess late today until 12 a. m. Monday and continue the extra session up until a few minutes before the regular session opens.

PORTSMOUTH WILL NOT GET WEATHER STATION

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 29—(Spl.)—Officials of the Chamber of Commerce were notified Saturday by Congressman Bowdle that the system of giving river reports and forecasts to Point Pleasant and Charleston, W. Va. and other cities will be improved but Portsmouth, O., and Point Pleasant will not get separate weather stations they asked.

An improved system of sending out river bulletins it is believed will aid business men in guarding against flood loss.

MILLER.

FLOODS ARE INVOLVED IN BIG SUIT

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 29.—The suit entered by the Hocking Valley Railroad company against the Lackawanna Lumber & Coal company for $30,000 in the United States district court here, brings up a new question with relation to floods and their effect.

Last March the railroad company was forced to change the route of cars billed by the Paint Creek Colliery company for which the Lackawanna company is the holding corporation, on account of floods in Ohio. The rerouting charges amounted to $30,000 and the railroad asks judgment in that sum.

Prisoner Allowed To Go To Funeral Of His Father On His Honor

Dayton, O., Nov. 29.—Howard McDonald, 20, today is on his way to Oswego, N. Y., with only his word of honor to Sheriff Lee that he will return to the Montgomery county jail where he is a prisoner on a minor charge. The sheriff permitted the prisoner to go to New York to attend the funeral of his father and is confident he will return.

TRACE STOLEN MAIL BAGS

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 29.—Mail valued at between $20,000 and $70,000 stolen from an eastbound Michigan train at Dowagiac, Mich., last night, was traced to this city today but the mail and thieves are still missing.

TIN CAN CO. SUED BY THE GOVERNMENT

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 29.—Suit was filed here today in the United States district court to dissolve the American Can company, the so-called tin can trust, which the department of justice alleges controls a large percentage of business of the United States in tin cans, containers and packages of tin. The American Sheet and Tin Plate company was made a defendant because of an agreement it is alleged to have with the American Can company to sell its tin for cans at a preferential rate.

In its complaint the government alleged practices in restraint of trade agreements by absorbed concerns not to re-enter the field, contracts by consumers who buy from the "trust" exclusively and arbitrary fixing of prices.

Attorney General McReynolds asked in the bill for a dissolution, other than a pro rata basis by asking for a separation into units of different ownership to insure the restoration of competition. The alleged conspiracy was entered into in 1901.

Exams By State

Columbus, O., Nov. 29.—First competitive examinations under the new civil service law for state clerks and stenographers will be held on Dec. 17 John W. Zeller, Columbus, former state school commissioner, will conduct the examinations, the places for which have not yet been determined upon.

MEXICAN PROBLEMS TO BE SETTLED SOON, VILLA ON THE MOVE

Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 29.—Following a longer conference between Charge O'Shaughnessy for the United States and the Japanese minister to Mexico it was persistently reported that a settlement of Mexican and United States difficulties was due within the next 48 hours.

Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 29.—How desperately Gen. Huerta of Mexico, is fighting to stave off the dissolution of his regime was indicated in official dispatches today which told how Huerta controlled newspapers in Mexico in printing sensational "news" of a "revolution" now on in the United States between the whites and blacks. The stories say a race war is spreading in Indiana, Colorado and Texas with such rapidity that Secretary Bryan and President Wilson have no time to bother about Mexico.

Cash Register Men Have Filed Appeal

AN APPEAL IS FILED IN THE BECKER CASE

New York, Nov. 29.—Twenty-five reasons why Police Lieutenant Becker should not be executed for the murder of Herman Rosenthal will be presented next week to the state court of appeals. Becker is now in Sing-Sing prison under sentence of execution.

One of the principal arguments in Becker's behalf will be that Sam Schepps, the chief corroborative witness for the state, was an accomplice. His attorneys complain that the trial was rushed through and that Becker was convicted by public opinion.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 29.—President John H. Patterson and 28 other officials or former officials of the National Cash Register company, who were convicted last year of violating the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law, filed an appeal in the United States district court of appeals here today. Despite the fact that the appeal is only a condensed resume of the case, it contains more than a million words and was written on 2,089 pages.

It is the most voluminous appeal ever presented to the local court.

HAS RIGHTEOUS KICK

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Chas. Nelson, back from two years wandering found a stranger occupying a grave in the cemetery lot he had bought for his own use. He is suing an undertaker.

Marietta Man Is Named

Columbus, O., Nov. 29—Governor Cox today appointed Daniel P. Torpy, of Marietta, Ohio, directing commissioner for Ohio at the Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. Ohio manufacturers requested Cox to make an early appointment so they might have best facilities for displaying their goods.

Too Much Fire Water Made Me Crazy In The Head, Said Indian

Columbus, O., Nov. 29.—"Too much fire water made me crazy in the head." Yuan Garcia, a Cherokee Indian, told Judge Osborn in police court today. Having just arrived from Oklahoma, Garcia raided a drug store and stole six bottles of perfume. He got 30 days.

GOVERNMENT TO INSPECT MEATS

Columbus, O., Nov. 29.—Strict federal inspection at all meats used in Ohio designed to protect the consuming public from diseased tuberculous pork and diseased mutton was promised today by Gov. Cox to Mrs. Henrietta Grancl, representing the "Cleveland Housewives' Association." "The present system of state and city supervision of meats is inadequate," the governor admitted to Mrs. Grancl. He will immediately take up the question of federal inspection.

GOT THE BOOT

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Intoxicated, Henry Beyer confessed to 20 murders. The police booted him out of the police station.

YOUTH WAS GIVEN A LASHING

New Castle County Work House, Wilmington, Delaware, Nov. 29.—Failing to secure a reprieve today from Governor Miller, of Delaware Cornelius Streit, white youth, convicted of burglary, was given 25 lashes "well on the bind on" at the Delaware whipping post here this afternoon.

Streit clenched his teeth, entertained the jest as I never whimpered while the cat o'nine tails flayed his back.

The lashing turned his skin to fiery crimson.

AUTO PARTY IS HELD UP AND ROBBED

New York, Nov. 29.—Three robbers effected a daring and profitable holding of an automobile party in Pelham Parkway early today, taking money and jewelry worth $2,000 from Cornelius Doremus, president of the German Life Insurance company, a young woman companion and his chauffeur.

Doremus was beaten over the head and forced to hand over his watch and money and the young woman, whose identity was not revealed, fainted when two diamond rings were snatched from her fingers.

Big Sum Of Money Stolen

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Robbers entered the office of T. J. Hyman, secretary of the Illinois Steel company, and escaped with $4,630 worth of valuables and jewelry.

Marriage To Save Convict

Lima, O., Nov. 29.—Because Geo. Nicols will marry a Toledo woman who befriended him when he finishes his penitentiary sentence on Dec. 28, Allen county officials will dismiss a theft indictment against him. His previous crime was the theft of $1500 worth of silk.

There's one satisfaction about bein' a weather man right at th' present time—there's no chance t' say th' income tax! There's no joy that I know of that's so dear t' th' American heart as th' joy o' tax exemption—'specially feelin' that somebody else has it t' pay. I'm mighty sweet on th' income tax. How's that? S'posin' I had it t' pay? Well, that'd be different. Here's for to-morrow:

Ohio—Rain tonight and Sunday; warmer tonight.

Kentucky—Rain tonight and probably somewhat colder Sunday in west and central portions.

Continuous Pictures At The Columbia

"Continuous pictures" will be the innovation at the Columbia theatre after next Monday, Manager Tynes having arranged to work two operators and two machines. While this means more expense, it will also mean that the Columbia is keeping pace with the high grade theatres of the country in eliminating tiresome waits. Patrons may now enter the Columbia any time it is open, afternoon or evening, and will not have to wait for the "next show." This feature will appeal to the matinee goers especially, as they often have only a limited time in which to see a show.

DICK SMITH IS BUSY SIGNING UP PLAYERS

Ironton, O., Nov. 29.—Dick Smith has begun to gather together the cogs of his baseball machine, with which he hopes to win the Ohio State league pennant and will continue to corral men that he thinks will help the team to the coveted goal.

Yesterday deals were completed for three players which should form the neucleus of a first rate club for all the men are highly touted and have had big league training. All are young men and will go higher but need a year or so of seasoning. G. W. Hanson, a catcher, who has had a tryout in the big show, was signed as was an outfielder named Kelly, secured from Red Dooin, of the Philadelphia National league club. The new manager also signed Cooney, an infielder, recommended by Bill Donohue, the famous old star of the diamond. These men will all report when the training season opens and should aid materially in rounding out the youngsters. Other youngsters and well seasoned men will be signed in the near future as Dick has many deals on for good players.

Who Is Greatest Of Living Statesmen?

(By H. M. S.)

"Who is the greatest living statesman today?"

That will be one of the live issues discussed at the session of the Men's Bible class at Trinity tomorrow morning.

The first thing on the program tomorrow, after the opening devotional service, is the continuation of the discussion of last Sunday's lesson and the question, "Which deserves greater praise, statesman or warrior?" After the class has settled this—if they can—Prof. Finney will ask the leader given above, and it is some poser. In these days of great statesmen and idealism it is going to be a tug of war to get a preponderance of opinion on one side.

There will be the usual fine musical program, and the famed Pilgrim Singers will give one of their fine numbers. This fine male quartet never fail to delight its audience.

President John McMillan wants a full house, and "weather excuses will not be accepted from the regulars," says Mac.

Everybody come. You're welcome.

SENSATIONAL ANIMAL ACT AT THE NEW SUN

Beginning Monday matinee at the New Sun for three days Manager Lee will present Mlle. DeVaros and her school of trained leopards, a big headline sensational feature. Daly and Sherbrook in a comedy, singing and talking act, introducing the latest parodies and ragtime songs. Then we have Walter Perry, the man with 300 pounds of comedy, better known as the western comedian. The management has secured for an extra added attraction the Phanton Mirror Dancer, making the strongest bill of the season with four headline acts and pictures.

FOG HEAVIEST EVER

There have been heavy fogs to settle over the city, but the one that enveloped it Friday night was the worst experienced in the last half century, would we believe the stories of the old-timers.

So dense was the fog that arc light looked like a match would when lighted a square away. It was some fog and the city was wrapped in its misty sheet until 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

Henry Faivre, one of our oldest river and weather men, says the fo was a hum-dinger.

Drunken Girl Was Arrested

For the second time within 24 hours Vina Wilson, an Ironton girl, was arrested Friday night for being saturated with liquor. Detective Banens found her at the N. & W. passenger depot. The girl's addiction to the liquor habit is a puzzle to the police. She appears well dressed and shows traces of refinement and culture but the taste for liquor is too strong to overcome. Another effort was made to deport her from the city Saturday morning.

What Was the Ark?

Sunday morning's lesson with the men's Bible class of the German M. E. church will be a study of divine hydraulics. A number of questions, pertaining to the lesson, will be discussed, as follows:

What was the ark and what did it symbolize?

Why did the ark lead the procession?

Why were the people bidden to sanctify themselves?

What does it mean to "magnify" a man?

How is God with some people as He is not with others?

What part does man have in the relation of the divine?

How was the Jordan at flood a means of safety, of danger, of success?

What effect must the "wonder" have had upon Israel and upon the inhabitants of Canaan?

Directors Chosen By Masonic Club

Fifteen directors to serve during the coming year were chosen at the annual election of the Masonic Club, held Friday evening in the club rooms in the Masonic Temple. The fifteen elected were L. W. Bragdon, D. A. Grimes, Harry Johnson, Henry Scott, B. F. Vincent, Albert Zoellner, W. E. Clayton, George L. Gableman, W. D. Hosz, John A. Ives, E. E. Knox, S. C. Peebles, O. C. Sprague, P. W. Young and W. F. Zottman.

Officers of the Club will be chosen at a special meeting of the newly elected directors to be held at an early date. Delectable refreshments were served during the evening, and a most enjoyable time was spent by the large majority of the members who dropped in from time to time to cast their votes for the new directors.

Years Added to Life

Success may be spelled in dollars and cents, but the physical ability to accomplish something worth while keeps the enthusiastic worker at his or her task when dollars no longer offer an incentive. As age advances, we find ourselves unable to do some of the things we did formerly, and the realization that we are growing old suddenly dawns upon us. But, everyone has the opportunity to forestall the ravages of advancing age, if he wills. Moreover, there are many degenerative maladies affecting the vital organs that are inaugurated by, or dependent upon, disturbances of the blood supply. The diseases affecting the heart, blood vessels, kidneys and other vital organs are on the increase among people of advancing years. In this age of preventive medicine, it fortunately happens that these maladies can be avoided if taken in time. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey gives to the aged the vigor of youth and the power to sustain strength and energy. When taken at mealtime it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the body its full proportion of nourishment. Thousands of people in all walks of life have enthusiastically testified they owe their long life to the wonderful restorative and sustaining powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is a remedy you should not fail to try. Get it today. At most druggists, grocers and dealers, $1.00 a large bottle.

Filth on Stage Till Public's Stomach Is Filled Up

John R. Bickerton has shocked his fellow theatrical managers in New York City by the statement of some plain truths which they seldom discuss in the open.

"We'll keep filth on the stage till the public finds its stomach is turned," said Mr. Bickerton whose partner is young Mr. Zeigler, heir of the baking powder $10,000,000, has just produced the "Love Leash." It has run about two weeks, just long enough to prove that New York didn't want it, and so it will be taken off. The "Love Leash" was a clean play. It didn't pretend to teach a moral lesson in a bawdy house nor reform society by the exhibition of the private consciences of degenerates. Other plays which have done so and just escaped action by the New York county grand jury have succeeded.

"I think the New York public which goes to the theatre is tired of nastiness," said Mr. Bickerton. "I think moral plays will be successful."

But Mr. Bickerton is really a lawyer who took up the theatre as a side line. His theatrical experience is not as wide as that of some very successful producers in New York.

NOTED MOVIE ACTOR BEAT WIFE--DRUNK

New York, Nov. 29. Maurice Costello, 36 years old, the leading man of one of the Vitagraph companies, who is known the world by moving picture enthusiasts, was arraigned in the Coney Island court before Magistrate Geismar, charged with beating his wife, Mary. On account of his wife the charge was changed to that of disorderly conduct and Costello was placed on probation.

In her affidavit Mrs. Costello said that her husband, who is also a dancer of prominence, came home yesterday morning, and without any cause or justification beat her with his clenched fists. She was accompanied into court by her daughters, Dolores and Helen, 10 and 7 years old, respectively also well known to moving picture goers.

When Magistrate Geismar asked Costello what he had to say about the charges he simply shrugged his shoulders, looked at his children and wept. All he said was that he had been drinking. Mrs. Costello asked the magistrate to reduce the charge as she did not want her husband to go to jail and lose his position.

"All I want, your honor," she said, is that my husband stop his excessive drinking."

The charge was suspended and the "movie man" was placed on probation.

The Costellos have been married eleven years. Mrs. Costello and her two children are actresses of no mean ability.

Elks Lodge Of Sorrow Will Be Held Sunday, December 7

Beautifully impressive will be the Portsmouth B. P. O. Elks lodge of sorrow, which will be held Sunday, December 7, when a fitting tribute will be paid to the departed members of this progressive order. The musical feature of the program will be one of unusual excellence and the largest attendance in years is looked for.

The public is cordially invited to attend the memorial services and ample arrangements will be made to take care of a large audience. No more impressive services are held anywhere than the Elks lodge of sorrow and this year the committee in charge of the arrangements, which includes the Messrs. Will H. Schwartz, Charles Taggert and Sherrard Johnson has made a special effort to make the exercises in keeping with the spirit of the solemn occasion.

The following well known musical artists will take part in the services: Miss Lollie Anderson, Miss Ella Berry, Mrs. Charles Storck, Mrs. L. M. Doty, Mrs. E. W. Rardin, Watson Goddard and Harry E. Boyd. A special feature will be several selections by the Male Quartette of Ashland, Ky. It is composed of the Messrs. Nelson Weedon, Dr. J. M. Salmon, J. S. Hager and F. B. Moore. Miss Sadie Kricker will be the reader and the invocation will be made by Rev. John Wirt Dunning, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

There were two deaths in the ranks of Elkdom the past year, those who having crossed the dark river being Dr. Charles Flint Kline and Thomas Yeager. An eulogy commemorating their memory will be delivered by Exalted Ruler Will J. Meyer. The hall will be decorated for the occasion by Mr. Boyd.

HUSBAND NAMED MEN IN ACCUSING HIS WIFE

The divorce suit of Sadie Patton against Bruce Patton was partially heard in common pleas court Saturday. Mrs. Patton, in her petition alleged extreme cruelty and failure to provide. On the witness stand she stated that her husband when at work, did fairly well in providing things to eat, but did not provide proper clothing for her and their child. And that he spent more time in idleness than he did at work and would come home drunk and abuse her, and would at times leave her and she would have to depend upon her parents for support.

Several witness were called establishing a good reputation.

The defendant who was present was called to the stand. He decided that he did not provide for his family, but admitted that he did not hold a job long and was idle a portion of his time. In answer to the questions by the Court as to what was the trouble between them, he said his wife kept company with, or allowed other men to come about the house too much to suit him, and he named two or three men. This was a surprise to the plaintiff and her attorney and they asked that the case might be continued and these men brought into court. The case was continued until Monday next at 1 p. m. and the sheriff was instructed by the court to have these men brought in at that time.

Guests At Banquet

Messrs. George M. Appel, John Rayser, George Goodman and William Briggs are to be the guests of the brokers of Huntington, Ashland and Ironton, in Huntington, tonight (Saturday) at a banquet given in their honor by the Tri-State Brokers. The wholesalers and jobbers of the Ohio valley are to be the guests of honor at the banquet, which is an annual affair.

John Bonzo has moved to Lucasville and Anthony Smith has moved into the Purdy property.

T. H. Osburn made two trips to Lucasville this week for corn.

Dr. Greenlee gave a lecture at the Harrisonville church Sunday night on the Holy Land. The Doctor spent about five years in Palestine and speaks the native Arabic language. The lecture was very interesting. He spoke of the history of the country and the rise of Mohammedism, of the religion of Koran, of the customs of the people, and explained their oppressive system of taxation. He said that we are addressed far more than other peoples, in fact that we do not know how parently we are blessed until we see the condition of people of other lands. He described the work of the missionaries and gave the audience an idea of the difficulties to be overcome by reciting the familiar hymn, "Rock of Ages," in Arabic.

The Arabic language, he said, is a very difficult language to acquire, on account of the great number of gutturals and difficulties in syntax. He said that missionaries succeeded only where they had established schools. The Doctor then made a strong plea for the school as a factor in civilization. He said it mattered little what the production of our fields were unless some of our substance went for the making of human people, that by providing better schools we rob the jails, penitentiaries and almshouses; that by broadening the horizon of the mind we train the sympathies of the heart.

Dr. and Mrs. Greenlee left for Nashville, Tennessee, where they will take charge of a sanitarium.

SALEM

Rev. Willis preached at the New church Sunday night.

Rev. Norris, of the U. B. church, has concluded to stay here the coming year. He had decided to send in his resignation, owing to some dissatisfaction at different appointments. He is to begin his first protracted meeting at the Long Run church Sunday night.

Samuel Shoemaker has returned to Urbana to finish up a contract of cornhusking.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dever and daughter, of Harrisonville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Strecham, of Salem Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maynard were visitors his sister, Mrs. McDaniel, Sunday.

The half mile of pike extending to Salem church, under the supervision of F. Dehn, has been completed and is a fine piece of road.

Miss Elva Wilson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Shoemaker, over Sunday.

Wm. Kronk, who has been seriously ill the past few weeks, is on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Adkins, of Candy Run, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melva Stone, of Yankee Run, over Sunday.

Joseph Bonzo, Sr. who has been ailing for the past few weeks, is slowly gaining his health.

LYRA

Quite a crowd of young folks had an outing on the hills Sunday afternoon. Those in the party were Darline Millirons, Doris Weaver, Sarah and Maegie Rolfe, Bertha Armbrust, Doris and Lucille Smith, Clarence Smith, Lou Nagle, Homer and Lowell Nance, Harold Cayton and Burt Weaver. They gathered winter-green, explored some rock houses and enjoyed the afternoon very much.

Pine Creek quarterly meeting held its session at Antioch church Friday Saturday and Sunday. Six ministers attended and a good meeting was had. The next session will be held at Union church. Among the many people present was Grandfather Mann, the oldest delegate.

Egbert Cayton, who has been very ill with heart trouble, is not much improved. His son George has been called to his bedside.

Mrs. Alvira Flemming has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Flora Burns.

Miss Nora Smittle has been visiting relatives here.

Chas. Smith has moved his family into George Strickland's house. The Stricklands have moved to Castle Hill.

Ray Bandy, who has been working in Richwood, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yeley were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Millirons, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Uri Nurse were visiting Mrs. Mary Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Turner, Sunday.

RARDEN

Miss Ella Hazelbaker, of Otway, was here recently visiting relatives.

Rev. James Upton, of Otway, delivered a good sermon here Sunday morning.

Miss Etta Newman, of Jay-Bird, was the guest of Miss Muriel Johnson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Bush spent Tuesday in Portsmouth.

Misses Millie Day and Mabel Scott were visitors in Otway Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson were visiting relatives at Jaybird, Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Bender was the Sunday guest at Mrs. Alton Liston at Young.

Miss Lillian Windle visited relatives in Otway.

Miss Elsie Wallace spent Saturday and Sunday in Portsmouth with her sister. Miss Evelyn, who is taking a business course there.

Warren Nance and little niece, Mildred Newman, spent Monday at Macon with her father, Edgar Newman.

Dr. H. F. Clark was a recent Portsmouth visitor.

Her Voice Not Developed Until She Was a Mother

"A remarkable statement has just been made by Mrs. Bellevue, known to the stage as Miss Annette Flack, said by some critics to possess the best voice on the musical comedy stage, that she really did not know how to sing till she had become a mother.

"I had been singing for years," said Mrs. Bellevue, "and I fondly supposed that my voice was very good. Others told me it was. Three years ago little 'Honey Boy' came to us, and after that I felt my voice increase in volume, tone and control. I then realized that I had not sung well before, and I could begin to believe those friends who told me that my singing was very good.

"I know it myself. I noted the change at once and since then I believe my voice has been improving right along. Of course I don't know if this is the experience of all singers who are mothers, but you will note that many very great singers have had large families."

Blevins Refused New Trial; The Pen For Life

Refused a new trial, Ezra Blevins, who was recently convicted of murder in the first degree, was sentenced Saturday morning by Judge Thomas, to spend the remainder of his natural life within the prison walls of the Ohio penitentiary. As Blevins is but 28 years old, this is a rather severe sentence, but he took the life of his fellow man and should suffer for the deed. He took the sentence without a sign of being disturbed in any way, hardly a chance of his countenance. He has kept up this appearance don't care style ever since his arrest. The attorneys in the case appeared in court Saturday morning and argued the motion for a new trial. Theo K. Frank argued on behalf of the motion, and Judge Milner against it. Mr. Frank argued that the court should have allowed him to have challenged peremptorily juror Charles Scudder, after the panel had been filled, and that the court erred in not going far enough with its charge, and other matters to which objections had been entered at the time of the trial.

Judge Milner answered him in few words as to the evidence and the law, and as to some strong impressions the attorneys or the defense had of his statements to the jury.

Judge Thomas, in ruling on the case, said that this state was very liberal with those who roamed time, in the selection of a jury to say whether or not they are guilty. In this instance, said the court, a murder was committed in the wilds of Scioto county, and there was no reason why a man from the eastern part of the county should be challenged peremptorily.

Great care was taken in the selection of this jury, and it was composed of good men, and they paid close attention to the case, and the court believes that the verdict rendered was warranted by the evidence, and the motion for a new trial would be overruled. The defendant's attorney requested a transcript of the trial, that they might take the case to the court of appeals on the legal questions brought out.

Moving By Degrees

The Excelsior Shoe company is moving into the new building on Gallia street by easy stages. All stock shoes are now being shipped from it.

Two carloads of Boy Scout shoes arrived from the Ironton plant Saturday and were stored in the new home of this firm. Within two or six weeks the firm will be practically adjusted to its new factory building.

Selling Pianos

C. F. Welsh, traveling representative of the Baldwin Piano company, of Cincinnati, was a visitor in Portsmouth this week. The local agent, Floyd Stearns, used a piano to John T. Stewart, of Scioto ville, and an Ellington Mannuda to Clarence Cottell, of Eleventh street, during the past week.

Railway Visitor

Albert K. Mitchell, a representative of the Pennsylvania lines, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

HERE UNTIL JANUARY 1

Will Pixley, who has been employed in the Chalmer's automobile factory in Detroit, arrived home Saturday and will remain until after the holidays. The automobile game is at its lowest ebb at this particular time of the year.

For Children There Is Nothing Better

A cough medicine for children must help their coughs and colds without bad effects on their little stomachs and bowels. Foley's Honey and Tar exactly fills this need. No opiates, no sour stomach, no constipation follows its use. Stuffy colds, wheezy breathing, coughs and croup are all quickly helped, and sweet, refreshing slumber instead of feverish tossing at night. It is easy, therefore, to understand why an increasing number of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is sold yearly. For sale by The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy. adv

George Hohnan, ticket agent at the N. & W. passenger station, has returned from a two weeks' hunt in the vicinity of Bloom Switch, and will be back on the job bright and early Monday morning. He had fine success on his hunting trip and returned loaded to the guards with game, which he distributed among his many friends.

SURVEYS FOR EXTENSION

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—The Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth Railroad company, which is a part of the Ohio Southeastern system, has made surveys for an extension of the line from Ruedlville to West Union, Ohio. The Ohio River and Columbus also a part of the same system, is making surveys from the southern terminals at Ripley, southeast, following the shore of the Ohio river to Maysville, Ohio, 70 miles.

Will Help Strikers

Portsmouth Socialists will hold a mass meeting Sunday afternoon at the Harugari hall for the purpose of raising money to be sent to the striking miners at Calumet, Mich. A large attendance is desired, as the local hopes to raise a tidy sum to add to the relief fund being raised all over the country.

ALWAYS A LIMIT.

The Kentucky supreme court, which once decreed that, though a passenger had pushed his way into a railway coach against the protest of the conductor and was ejected at the next station for drunkenness, it was required of the crew to take him to a hotel or some other safe place and not leave him on the platform to stumble to accident, has found railroads have some rights in regard to passengers.

An individual sued because he was not aroused from profound sleep, when he reached his destination, being carried beyond and having to buy a return ticket. The testimony showed the passenger slumbering soundly and he was not awakened when the brakeman roared: "The next station is Hopkinsville," and so he was carried by. The august and sapient court of last resort upon these facts, held, that a first class coach is not a Pullman, in other words, no place for snoozing and when the brakeman called even to a moderately loud tone the next stopping place, the railway did all required of it as a common carrier and it was the business of the passenger to wake himself or not go to sleep he had his choice and the railroad was not concerned as to either.

AND A GOOD ONE.

The suggestion has been made that the Frick administration should take up the betterment of the city as against the possibility of a disastrous conflagration, particularly in the line of prohibiting the erection of buildings in the business districts that notably increase fire hazard.

This is advanced with the incoming of each new government, but so far without perceptible result. Yet, the wisdom of it is apparent. For boast, as we well may of the growth and progress of the Peerless, practically no improvement has been made in this direction, except in the few instances of individual precaution and state requirements. But that such improvement is necessary, even urgent, none will dispute, and means, even though they be most drastic, could well be entered upon.

THE STUDENT VOTE.

Too often newspapers start out to find fault with a public official, instead of finding fault in his action. Upon such a basis they place themselves instead of him in the wrong.

That is what a Republican paper or two is doing just now in criticising Governor Cox for approving the voting residence of students as where they live and not the vicinage of the place where they attend school. No official deserves criticism for doing right and that is what Governor Cox did when he refused to give his veto the measure which took away from students the privilege of voting at the college they attended. Qualifications of voters must be fixed if there is to be either honesty or fairness in the ballot. Among the most necessary qualifications is a fixed place of abode. Students do not have fixed abode at their colleges. Not so many as one in a hundred has an idea, to say nothing of a determined purpose to take up his permanent place of abode at his college town. His residence is, ordinarily, where he comes and it should remain there legally until he finishes his studies and enters upon a career of some sort.

If the thousands of students that aggregate at Columbus, in the county of Franklin, to attend the state university, should be permitted to vote there, by as much reason should the thousands of other students that congregate at Yale, in the state of Connecticut, be permitted to vote there. The unfairness of the latter proposition, however, is apparent, because those thousands, welded together, could change the result of an election in a state and even of a nation itself. The unfairness of letting the thousands at Columbus, Ada, Zenia, Rio Grande and other college towns in the state vote thereat, ought to be equally apparent. They have often changed what would otherwise have been the result in city and county and it is believed no later than last year altered at least one congressional election.

It's cheap flapdoodle to protest the sacred and inviolable right of the student to vote. He has that right and all he has to do is to come home to vote just as he comes home to eat the sacred turkey.

AFTER MANY YEARS

The British minister, no doubt inspired by his government, has given approval to the Monroe doctrine.

In brief, this doctrine is, that foreign powers, more directly those of Europe, shall not invade either North or South America for the purpose of further conquest of territory. In essence it is the Americas for Americans. It was first set down by that staunch Democratic President Monroe, whose administration was one of the wisest and safest ever blessing the country. It has been observed because back of it was these powerful United States, but diplomacy until now has ever avoided actual or direct acceptance of it.

The British acknowledgement of it is timely and will prove influential, and while there is some disturbance in Central and South America at the present times the nations of those long distracted regions are making perceptible advance towards peace and progress.

PORTSMOUTH MAY HAVE A WOMAN LAWYER

Portsmouth may have a woman lawyer in the near future, as Miss Emma Davis, the efficient bill clerk at the C. & O. depot at South Portsmouth, has resigned her position, and will leave this spring to take the law course at Valparaiso, Ind. When she graduates she will probably locate here, although she has not fully decided upon this point.

Miss Davis was formerly a Scioto county school teacher, and has shown unusual ability in all the positions she has filled.

Guard Willis, now night ticket [illegible] at the depot, will take Miss Davis' place. His successor has not yet been named.

WHISKERS SAY OPEN SEASON

All signs point to an open winter, according to the employees of the Vogel Bros. mill on Chillicothe street, who base their prophecy on the fact that Fritz Swander had a four weeks' beard growth shaved off this morning. PHILIP J. KLINGMAN DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—Philip J. Klingman, 50, one of the best known furniture men in this city and owner of the largest furniture store in the world, died today following an operation for kidney trouble at St. Mary's hospital. He was born in Portsmouth, Ohio, where he has many relatives.

Mother on Way To Visit Him

News of the death of Mr. Phillip J. Klingman came to local relatives Saturday as a decided shock as they were unaware of his serious illness. His aged mother, Mrs. Katherine Klingman, is visiting in Chicago and was enroute to the home of her son to spend the holidays. The sudden summons of the Master of Destinies turns her happy anticipations into deep sorrow.

Born in Portsmouth Mr. Klingman in his early days went to Cincinnati and took employment with the firm of Schillito and company. Years of indefatigable work and honest efforts laid the foundation for the highly successful business career that followed. He moved to Grand Rapids, Mich. after marrying a Cincinnati girl and established himself in the furniture business. Natural business ability and integrity combined with aggressiveness and enterprise soon made him prominent in the furniture circles of the world.

Had Become Very Wealthy

Through this business he became quite wealthy and besides owning a palatial home in Grand Rapids enjoyed the pleasures and luxuries of a summer home at Spring Lake, Mich. Practically the entire last year of his life was spent at his summer home where he bravely combated the attack of kidney trouble which ultimately exacted his life.

Relatives In Portsmouth

Besides the mother, the decedent is survived by a wife, Mrs. Josephine Klingman and four brothers and a sister, Fred and Henry Klingman of this city, Will of Chicago and Ed of Spokane, Washington, and Mrs. J. Fred Niel of Zanesville, Ohio. Phillip Klingman, Jr., a son of Will Klingman of Chicago, and a nephew of the deceased, is expected in the city Sunday afternoon with particulars of the rather sudden demise. The remains are expected to arrive in the city Monday when arrangements will be completed for the last rites.

Mr. Klingman started out as a cash dragging boy in Shillito's store in Cincinnati. For the past year he had been in poor health and rarely left his farm which was located just outside of Grand Rapids.

Philadelphia Paper Praises Williams

If you are not convinced that Graves Williams earned undying fame for himself and brought great honor to his school, Lafayette, who beat Lehigh University on "Turkey Day" then read this from the account of this great game published in the Philadelphia Ledger:

"The hero of the game was young "Gravy" Williams, a boy, the youngest member of the team, who came to Lafayette last fall from the University School of Cleveland. He played his way up from the ranks of the fourth team. On several occasions by dire necessity he was substituted as a third and fourth choice. Today, with Brown out of the game Kennedy unfit to play, Scheeren suffering from a fallen instep, and Fahr kept on the sidelines, Coach McCan picked Williams to go into the backfield. It was a fortunate choice. In the opinion of the writer the game could not have been won without him, and would probably have resulted in a defeat, for, in addition to making the longest run on a scrimmage, which resulted in Lafayette's only score, it was his consistent long runs that kept the Dickinson line of scrimmage back from the goal line.

"Lafayette's score came in the very first minutes of play. Receiving the kick-off, Lafayette exhibited a splendid defense and carried the ball to the Dickinson 15-yard line, where it was lost on a fumble. Plays by Dickinson and a high punt by Dunn gave the ball to Lafayette on her own 40-yard line.

"Williams opened the approach which ended in a touchdown by piercing the line for five yards. Jack Diamond plunged through center for one and then skirted his own right end for 22 yards.

"A bad pass threw the play back to the 40-yard line and here Williams was called on. With the speed of lightning he started behind good interference. He outdistanced the center, guard and tackle and shot in between the tackle and Dickinson right end. Without decreasing his speed and by the help of a scattered interference he evaded the secondary defense to the goal line and planted the ball between the uprights. It was one of those vivid plays which memory will recall in all its details for years to come."

ATTRACTIVE PROPOSITIONS

For young men of moderate means.

$10.00 cash and $5.00 per month buys either of two fine large "flood proof" homesites in thriving Fullerton. Size 40 by 150. A rare bargain at $150.00.

$20.00 cash and your promise to pay the residue within thirty to forty months buys any one of the five beautiful building lots remaining unsold in the Northern Addition to Sciotoville; all high above the 1913 flood; stone sidewalks; natural gas; 3 minutes walk from car line; 5 minutes from new high school site. Lots are extra large. Attractive prices. 20 houses have been built in this addition within the past twenty months, and 80 per cent of them are occupied by the owners.

Four large hill lots with good building sites, suitable for poultry and fruit growing, and containing from one to three acres each in the same addition are offered at alluring prices and on easy terms.

Just five more chances to get in on the ground floor in Maplewood. These five lots are closer in and in many other respects more desirable than the lots farther out on the same street that have sold for more money than these are offered at. Terms to suit purchasers.

Come out to Sciotoville tomorrow and let me show you these great opportunities in real estate. C. W. G. Hannah, Sciotoville, Home phone 2103, Bell phone 13 R 2. 29-1

OBITUARY

Miss Margaret A. Leichner.

One of the most pathetic deaths that has occurred in the city in many months took place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock when the grim reaper claimed Miss Margaret A. Leichner, daughter of Dan Leichner, who resides at 723 Ninth street. Just four days ago she was taken ill with erysipelas, but her condition was not considered serious until last night, when Miss Leichner became desperately ill, blood poisoning having developed. Heroic measures were employed to arrest the progress of the disease, but they were unavailing and Miss Leichner passed away at 9 o'clock.

The news of her sad death came as a distinct shock to her friends and acquaintances, many of whom had not learned of her illness. Miss Leichner was born March 28, 1877. She had been an honored and esteemed resident of Potsmouth since 1877. She was confirmed in the German Evangelical church, but in later years became affiliated with the Second Presbyterian church. She was a most estimable young woman, kind and loving, and her death is surrounded by very sad circumstances. Besides her father, Dan Leichner, the following brothers and sisters survive: John, George and Mrs. Amelia Williams, of this city, and Dan, Jr., of Lynn, Mass. Just six weeks ago Miss Leichner's brother, Ed Leichner, passed away following the third stroke of paralysis. The two deaths coming so closely together have plunged the home into the deepest sorrow and the sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Leichner and his family in this their darkest hour.

The funeral services will be held from the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will follow in Greenlawn cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Lindenmeyer, pastor of the German Evangelical church, will conduct the last sad rites of this popular young woman, who but a few short days ago was the picture of health.

John Clinton Colvin.

A well-known resident of Lower Twin creek died Thursday afternoon at the age of 56 years after a long illness with tuberculosis when John Clinton Colvin succumbed. Three sons, Thomas, William and Machie, all at home, and two daughters, Mrs. Walter Hinkle, of Buena Vista, and one out west survive. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon with burial in the family cemetery.

Joshua Mathews

Mrs. Nell Abrams, of Second street, is in receipt of the news of the death of a brother, Joshua Mathews, aged 52, a well known Greenup county farmer, who died at his home at Beauty Ridge several days ago, after a prolonged illness with dropsy. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Mathews, and two children, Ross and Clinton, at home. Four brothers also survive, Jerry, Franklin and Charles and Firman of Kentucky. Interment took place in Harr's cemetery.

Smith Dearth.

In response to a message, Frank Dearth, an N. & W. conductor, of 1215 Young street, left for Charleston, W. Va., to attend the funeral of his father, Smith Dearth, aged 60, a farmer of Little Sandy. The deceased is survived by his wife, the son and two daughters, Mrs. Emma Purcell of Blue Creek, and Mrs. Matt Cavender, of Cooper's creek.

Ollie Walker.

Within a week's time death has twice entered the home of William Walker, of Salt Creek, near Lucasville, and claimed members of the family. Philip Walker, a son, aged 24, succumbed to paralysis last week. Friday, a daughter, Ollie Walker, died of tuberculosis at the age of 21 years. The family is grief stricken over the double bereavement. Two brothers and a sister survive, Huston, Murt and Carrie. Funeral services took place Saturday afternoon, with interment at Glendale cemetery.

SOCIAL NEWS

The Loyal Neighbors Kensington held a Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. C. E. Worley of Friendship. During the day the guests were entertained by piano and vocal solos. The members of the club and their friends who partook of the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Blair, Lena and Kline Blair, Mrs. Ella Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Evans, Helen Evans, Louise Evans, Bobby and Charley Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harper, Gladys Wittenburg, Helen Sprague, Bill Turner, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Worley, Pauline Worley, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Magnet, Sarah, Bess, Lewis and John Magnet, Melzar Chick, Mr. H. C. Cuppet, Mr. and Mrs. David Stockham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, Ruth, Louise and Howard Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Odle, Ruth and Luther Odle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Turner, Mabel, Arthur and Amy Turner, Mrs. Frank Swearingen, Mrs. George Boltz, John Boltz, Mrs. D. N. Hopkins, Herman Winters and Mr. and Mrs. George Butler.

The Holmes club met last evening at the home of Misses Edith and Clara Burke, where the program was presented as follows:

"If I could make a pudding wi' thinking o' the butter, it'ud be easier gettin' dinner."

Roll Call—Your Favorite Recipe.

Paper—The Opening of the Panama Canal—Miss Margaret Klingman.

Mrs. Bertha Brand Switalski, the bride of the club, was presented with a handsome cut-glass cream and sugar. The recipes of the roll call were written on cards and presented to the bride. Refreshments followed the program. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mabel Stahler Pick.

Miss Ruth Thompson will entertain the Scioto Bridge club next Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lydia Jones has gone to Waverly to visit among relatives for a few days.

Miss Bedell, of Jackson, is the charming guest of Miss Leona Labold, of Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mearan of Ironton and Mrs. Leslie Cohen and daughters, Mildred and Lulian, of Huntington, will spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Si Streius of this city.

Under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. an oratorical contest was given last evening at the Y. M. C. A. The program follows:

Song—America.
"Why Am I a Prohibitionist."
"Ma Can't Vote."
"Betsy and Joe."
Duet—Misses Della Evans and Hettie Owens.
"What Have You Done Today?"
"My Big Brother Joe."
Vocal—Miss Bess Goodman.
"Nellie's Victory."
"Not Fit to Kiss."
Trio—Mildred Weymer, Anna Lee Goodman and Lucile Warner.
Reading—Hettie Owens.
Piano—Della Oakley.

The above selections were so well rendered that it was hard to decide which was best. The judges were Mrs. Heaberlin, Mrs. Chick and Mr. Schusky. In the absence of Miss Boyles, Miss Ida Werner presided at the piano. The winner of the contest recited "What Have You Done Today?" A pretty duet was rendered by Misses Melva Day and Lucile Burnside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McIlroy will spend Sunday with relatives in Ironton.

Misses Lena Richmond, Eva Scott and Mr. William Cooper have gone home to West Union at the end of a week-end visit at the home of Mrs. A. C. Richmond, on Eleventh street.

The Epworth League of Trinity Methodist church presented beautiful flowers and fruit to Miss Mabel Hood, who is recovering from illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cox of Sedan will move in the near future to Plattsburg, Clark county.

Miss Leona Labold entertained with a beautiful bridge tea this afternoon at her home on Fourth street, honoring Miss Antoinette Scudder of Newark, N. J., guest of Mrs. George D. Scudder. There were eleven tables of bridge where the guests who play cards spent a delightful afternoon. At 4 o'clock Miss Labold served tea to the card guests and many others who do not play cards. Among the guests were Miss Bedell of Jackson, the house guest of Miss Labold, and Miss Robin Willard of Wellston, guest of Mrs. Wells A. Hutchins.

Miss Alice Dever is at home from Cincinnati where she went to attend the wedding of Miss Grace McChristie and Mr. Ralph McFell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey, of Logan street, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Foster, [illegible] Fourth street, at a [illegible] dinner.

MOTIF FOR CUSHION COVER

A cushion with an embroidered cover makes a very appropriate Christmas gift. The leaves should be outlined in the long and short stitch or closely buttonholed around the edge. The top of the acorn is solidly worked and the cup, stems and veining in the leaves are outlined. Use colored or white mercerized cotton No. 18 or twisted silk.

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING.

In taking off these patterns, lay a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through.

No patterns of these designs are available.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise: When was the March flood at its highest and what was the stage?

READER.

On March 31st. The stage was 66 feet, 10 5-4 inches.

Dear Miss Wise: What did the war in Mexico start about?

PEACEFUL ONE.

Injustice and oppression under the administration of General Porfiro Diaz, for 30 years dictator of Mexico.

Dear Miss Wise: Where is a good place to take a month's vacation in a warm climate this winter?

COLD FEET.

Florida or San Antonio, Texas, and after January first it is warm in California.

Dear Miss Wise: I am 15 years old and [illegible] keeping company with a [illegible] man for about three weeks. Papa won't let him come to our house but four times a week. Don't you think we have a good cause to elope? I have a wonderful voice, but papa won't let me sing while he is around. What shall I do?

BETTY.

I do not think that your friend is a "Young man." I think he is a mere boy, and your father permits him to come about four times too often in one week. If you think that in about six months or a year that you would care to go out doing washings, or other work, then I think you have good cause to elope. For that will be the outcome. No girl of less than 22 years old should think of getting married. You should be in school studying, or if your voice is so wonderful, why not devote your time to improving it and then perhaps your father will not object to hearing you sing.

Lucasville, Ohio. Dear Miss Wise: I met a young lady one week ago in Portsmouth and she gave me her telephone number, but have misplaced same and can not remember her name. Now dear Dolly, I want to talk to her, what can I do?

ANXIOUS.

Look in the book and see.

Answer to a Worried Blue-eyed Girl: I would advise you to be a little more independent. The man probably knows he can make and break dates with you is the reason he does it. Go out with other friends for awhile and don't pay any attention to him and he will soon find out that he can't treat you that way. A man who will continually make dates with a girl and then not fill them, or let her know he can't, is not very much of a gentleman.

Dear Miss Wise:—As I am a stranger here, have been here two months, but have been sick all the time. I like the town but I do not think the place agrees with me, also my husband's work is not good here. We have been thinking of going to Cincinnati. What do you think about it?

YOUNG WIFE.

Cincinnati is supposed to be a healthy place, that is if you live in the suburbs. If your husband can get good work down there, you might try it for a change.

Dear Miss Wise:—I have a young girl friend who uses so much pink powder on her face, and I have talked to her, but she doesn't pay any attention to it. Do you think she should powder that way?

HER FRIEND.

There is an art in knowing how to use powder, and when it is artistically used it is becoming, but why young girls will put it on in layers and think it enhances their beauty. I can't imagine. It gives them a bold, coarse look, and detracts from their sweetness and girlish charm.

Dear Miss Wise: Please tell me what can I do for my hair as it is coming out so badly, and it's so oily I can not dress it nice. Do they wear puffs any more.

BROWN EYES.

I don't just know what is the trouble with your hair, my dear. It should be kept clean and you should brush it well every day with a clean brush. Brushes and combs must be kept clean. To make it thicker, rub a little vaseline into the scalp every day or two—don't get it on the hair any more than you can help. Witch hazel is good for oily hair, rub a little into the roots several times a week. Puffs and rats are a thing of the past.

Dear Miss Wise: If a fellow tells his boy friend that he is tired of the girl he is going with and she finds it out, would you think it right for the girl to mention it to him?

BLUE EYES.

The boy may be just trying to come between you. Unless he acts like he is "tired" of you don't mention it to him.

Dear Miss Wise: Will you please tell me how to dress a duck (not wild). I was going to have it for Thanksgiving but was afraid to tackle it. Will now have it for Sunday.

IGNORANT HOUSEWIFE.

Ducks are dressed precisely as other poultry is prepared for cooking, except that their bodies are usually covered with feathers like fine hairs underneath the longer and stouter plumage. To get rid of them you may light a twisted piece of paper and pass the flame quickly over the surface of the body. Do not hold it under, but over the fowl, to prevent smoking. Or you may plunge the duck into really boiling water, holding it there for a few seconds and then rubbing it all over with a rough, dry cloth. This must be done quickly not to make the surface sodden.

Answer to His Mother-in-law: —The law compels a man to support his family. If he refuses to do this would advise you to swear out a warrant for his arrest and make him do so. His people have no right to take his money as it belongs to his wife and child.

Miss Dolly Wise: Will you please tell me what will take ink stain out of a tan serge dress, also how can I take warts off my hands.

A CONSTANT READER.

Gasoline or benzine. Coal oil is said to be good to remove warts. You could also ask your druggist to give you something to burn them off.

REQUESTED RECIPES

(By Miss Dolly Wise)

Baked Cranberries

One quart of cranberries, two cups of water, three cups of white sugar. Bake one hour. They are very nice and look like cherries when done, nicer than stewed ones as the peelings are very tender.

Fruit and Nut Salad

A delicious salad is made by cutting up preserved ginger, orange marmalade, nuts and dates. Mix these with a little lemon juice and place in wine glasses. Into this blend whites of eggs and put with nut meat.

Washington Fruit Cake

An excellent recipe for Christmas fruit cake. Two cupfuls of butter, three cupfuls of very brown sugar, four cupfuls of browned flour, five eggs well beaten, one cupful of sweet milk, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of cream tartar. Mix as usual, and stir in at the last half pound of currants washed and dried, half pound of raisins seeded, one pound of dates seeded and chopped, one teaspoonful of ground cinnamon, and one nutmeg. Bake slowly and steadily until done. If any of the fruit is omitted, add a little more flour.

Chicken Dressing

You can make chicken dressing same as turkey or any other kind of a dressing.

Cream Pie

Yolks of three eggs, one cup of sugar, two-thirds cup flour, one quart of milk, one teaspoonful of vanilla, a pinch of salt. Beat the yolks of the eggs, add the flour and the sugar, and enough milk in a double boiler. When milk comes to a boil pour the mixture into it, and let it cook till thick. Take from the fire and add the vanilla and salt. When cool put in baked crusts. Beat whites of the three eggs, add a little sugar, spread over top of pies and put in oven to brown.

WHEELERSBURG

Misses Mabel, Harriet and Bess Mackoy, Messrs. Brant and James Mackoy, of Wheelersburg, were the guests of Miss Edith Johnston, of Waverly, who entertained with a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner. The guest of honor was the hostess' sister, Miss Edna Johnston, of Washington, D. C. Other guests were Misses Willie Mackoy, of St. Paul, Ky., Genevieve Little, of Sciotoville, Belle Johnston, of Ironton, Vera and Mayme Johnston, of Waverly, and Mr. J. B. Johnston, making thirteen in all. Another noteworthy fact is that all present were first cousins.

The Standard Bearers will be entertained at the spacious home of Mrs. Ben Cranston, Friday evening.

Miss Lucile Mahew of South Webster is spending her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mackoy had as guests for Thanksgiving dinner Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ruggles and son, Ronald, of Portsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mackoy and Mr. and Mrs. Mode Mackoy.

The Bunny Hug

Is another one of our new shoes that has been particularly pleasing to ladies who want a stylish walking shoe.

The Bunny Hug is one of the new broad toes, low heel, hand welted and the arch is just the right height to protect the foot that has been the complaint of some of the new styles.

Made of dull leather in two grades, fitted to the foot as we fit them, it makes an ideal winter shoe.

Make This and Try It for Coughs

This Home-Made Remedy has no Equal for Prompt Results.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually conquers an ordinary cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchitis. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this plan.

Making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful mixture has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FATHER CANNOT GIVE LIQUOR TO HIS MINOR SON

The Scioto County Liquor Licensing Board submits the following with regard to the sale of liquors at the request of many saloonkeepers.

[illegible] have been asked if a father may legally purchase liquors in a [illegible] and give same to his minor son. Section 12961 of the General Code of Ohio, reads as follows:

"(Buying Liquor for Minor.) Whoever buys intoxicating liquor for, or furnishes it to a minor to be drank by him, unless given by a physician in the regular line of his practice, shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or both."

Section 1646 of the General Code, same being one of the sections of the Juvenile Law of Ohio reads as follows:

"A child within the provisions of this chapter [illegible] Gen. Code whose parents or guardian permits it to use or become addicted to the use of tobacco, or intoxicating liquors as a beverage and not for medical purposes, or whose parents or guardian rears, keeps or permits it in or about a saloon or place where intoxicating liquors are sold, or a gambling house or place where gambling is practiced or carried on, or a house of ill-fame or ill-repute shall be deemed to be without proper parental care or guardianship."

The supreme court of Ohio has held as follows:

"Selling to adult, knowing that adult will give same to minor is furnishing liquor to minor." Also, "all who aid or participate are principals." 24 O. S. Report, page 581.

Judge Caldwell of Cincinnati, held that no beer shall be delivered to minors on a standing order and that parents must give a written order each time.

As to free lunch in saloons the statutes say:

Sections 13224-1, 13224-2, and 13224-3 of the General Code of Ohio, make it unlawful to give away or furnish to any person free of charge in the place where intoxicating liquors are sold any food except crackers, cheese and pretzels. Also that it is unlawful to give away or furnish to any person any intoxicating liquors in any place where liquors are sold, in consideration in part or in whole for any food purchased in such place.

Burns to Hunt Criminals Over the World

William J. Burns, the most famous detective in the world, has just come back to the United States after several months in Europe where he began the organization of a world wide detective force, something never before attempted. Business, as he is a man of tremendous energy and vitality, there is no doubt he will succeed in perfecting an organization that will frighten [illegible] crooks who operate in America, Europe and Australia.

He found on his trip that private detective work of the class better he has done was unknown in Europe. Victims of criminals there have depended on the regular police forces, and outside of Scotland Yard they are no more competent than those of American cities. He has established agencies in Paris, London and Brussels already, and will extend this system to other European capitals. American managers, Americans are the best detectives, he says, will be placed in charge of his offices, but the detail work will be done largely by foreigners. It would be impossible to find many American detectives familiar with European languages and customs. Soon the American crook who seeks an asylum in Europe will be no safer than in an American city.

Boys Are Sentenced

Leslie Cox, one of the boys arrested [illegible] recently was sentenced to the Boys Industrial Home, Saturday by Judge Beatty.

Fred Ross, another boy who has been incorrigible for some time, would not go to school, and was addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors, was also ordered to the same institution. Young Ross has been out on a suspended sentence and like some others thought he could do as he pleased.

"THE DIVER" AT LYRIC MONDAY

"Grand" is the only word that adequately expresses the scenic beauty of the big, human-interest drama. It is staged on a magnificent scale. One of the most impressive works of all nature is the Falls of Niagara. To see the great white volumes of water smoothly hurling themselves over its brink down into the deep abyss, where it pounds with a mighty voice and sends its silver spray flying upwards to fall back again in myriads of little dancing drops upon the foaming waters of the rock contested rapids is something no one can contemplate without a feeling of pride and awe. But to see a woman risk her life above these falls to save a little girl from death is a sight which links the splendor of nature with the magnanimity of humanity and strikes the heart-chord which makes the warm blood flow faster through our veins. No one can afford to miss seeing this stirring drama, especially selected for its unusual power, knowing that it will appeal to the frequenter of the Lyric theater, where good things are always appreciated. Mlle. Vivian, who takes the part of "The Diver," is one of the world's greatest swimmers and divers and her work alone is well worth the admission, and the waiting you may have to do if you don't come early. The story of the picture is of great interest, a society drama that has been splendidly staged and acted by a star Vitagraph company. Earle Williams and Rose Tapley are the leaders and the work of the whole supporting cast is excellent. The Niagara Falls scene is one of the most impressive pieces of photographic beauty imaginable. The admission Monday will be five cents, and in addition to this great feature Manager Mack intends to show the local pictures he has taken of Gov. Cox and some other local scenes of interest.

Vernon Smith is walking with a limp, the result of an injury to his leg, which he sustained while playing football.

Edward Wren, of Grace street, received a flesh wound Friday afternoon when he engaged in a friendly scuffle with Earl McKinley. The cutting was accidental, but the story soon spread that a serious fight had been engaged in. Earl is clerk in Coburn's drug store.

Charles Sells, barber, on Ohio avenue, has moved to Scioto Furnace, his former home.

Mrs. Ella Jenkins is slowly recovering from an attack of neuralgia.

Miss Mabel Powell is visiting in Ashland. While there she will also visit Miss Mayme Johnson, of this place, who is confined in the hospital at Ashland.

The New Boston Tigers have their doubts as to whether the Giants will play them next Sunday or not, as they heard that they are turning yellow and trying to cancel their game.

Council will meet in regular session Monday night.

Arthur Smith has fully recovered from the injury to his foot, which was hurt Monday when a delivery wagon ran over it.

The two children of Fred Essman, who were poisoned by eating oysters, are recovering slowly.

Two new members were admitted into the Millbrook council of the Daughters of America, Friday night. Mrs. Julia Johnson and Mrs. Rella Ashcraft were the lucky ones and were initiated at the meeting in the city camp as the Millbrook council has not got a degree team.

WORLD'S SERIES GAMES AT COLUMBIA THEATRE

Pictures of the great World's Series games between New York and Philadelphia will be shown at the Columbia theater next Monday and Tuesday. This is the picture that the fans have been waiting for, and Manager Tynes is sure of a big business on those nights. The two reels of two thousand feet have just been placed on the market and Mr. Tynes is one of the first in this section to secure them. They were shown for the first time in Columbus this week and for the first time in Cincinnati next week, and will be shown together with the regular program for 10 cents. The program for today is a most beautiful two reel Edison special "A Face From the Past," in which Miss Mary Fuller, one of the most popular of all moving picture stars, plays the leading part, which in itself is enough to insure a fine production.

Watch this paper for announcement of something sensational in moving pictures that will be pulled off at the Columbia in the near future, they having secured one of the greatest five reel pictures offered to the public, and it will be shown in all its reality with full orchestra. Always a good show at the Columbia, says the management.

Was you in on the last one? Be sure and get in right on this one. 15 Minute Sale, East End Furniture Co. Monday a. m. and p. m. adv.

With The Topic

Why is / What is / Will it Death Ever Cease ?

BY ALBERT P. JOHNSON, COLUMBUS, O.

This is a subject of deep interest to every one, many and varied opinions being held as to what it is and why by scientists, professors and other learned men without fully satisfying one as to the real outcome, we claim the only satisfactory solution to these questions is found in God's Holy Word, in the Scriptures. And Mr. Johnson, a deep Bible Student and a logical reasoner, gives the Bible solution in contrast with those of human origin. Don't fail to hear this interesting lecture.

Sec. McAdoo Issues Statement to Banks About New Law

Washington, Nov. 29.—Secretary McAdoo issued a statement last night declaring that banks throughout the country reported to be restricting credits in order to meet the provision of the expected currency law are making a mistake. He announced that the resources of the treasury will be at the disposal of the banks to aid them in complying with the new law when it is put on the statute books. This statement in part says:

"The secretary expressed the conviction that the new law will impose no hardship on the banks and that the transfer of capital and reserve to the proposed federal reserve banks will be accomplished with little or no inconvenience to the banks and to general business. The secretary said that the treasury department had large available resources at its command; that he should not hesitate to use them for the purpose of aiding the banks to comply wit hthe new law and that in his opinion the banks could with perfect certainty proceed with the granting of accommodations to their customers in the normal and usual way. The secretary said that he did not, of course, assume to advise the banks but only wanted them and the business public to know that there is no grounds for apprehension and that the attitude of the treasury department is to be helpful and that he thought it could be effectively helpful. He said that if any banks are laboring under the impression that the new law will necessitate or occasion a restriction of credit they are controlled by error as no such change will result."

Real Estate Deals Near Lucasville

Considerable activity in the real estate field in the vicinity of Lucasville has been directed by J. H. Chandler, real estate dealer. Through Mr. Chandler, Jesse Ramey of Hilliard, O., has purchased the Willie Schumann property on Blue Run. W. F. Leslie's farm, on Big Run, has been transferred to Messrs. Dixon and Cooley, of Paintsville, Ky.

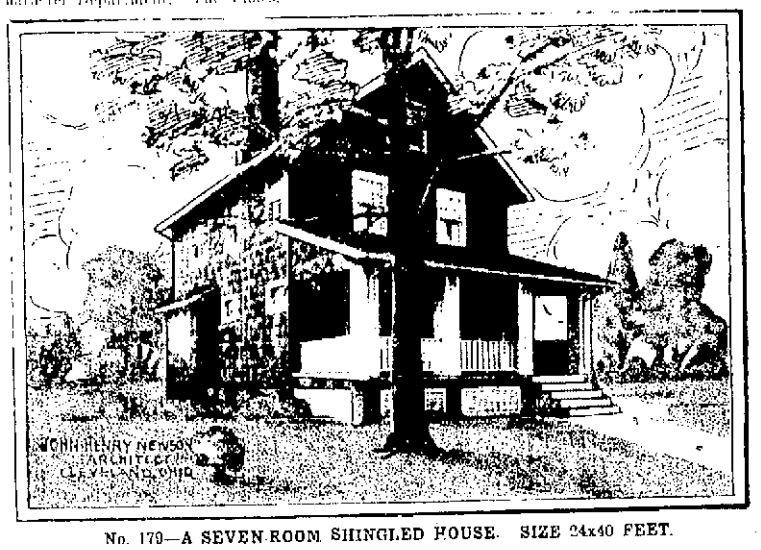
Joe Estep, of Hilliard, has moved onto the Castle place, in the Elmwood, back of Lucasville, which he recently bought. "Bill" Collins, of Hilliard, has recently made purchased property, the McNamee place, on Miller's Run.

Mr. Chandler has just returned from Virginia, where he sold a large tract of land near Devon to a man by the name of Kinsler.

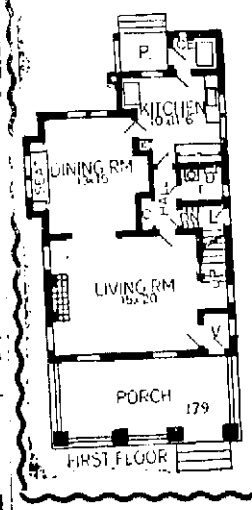
HOMES OF CHARACTER

No. 179—BY JOHN HENRY NEWSON.

By special arrangement with The Times Mr. Newson will answer any inquiries concerning these homes which Times readers care to make. Give number of design, address "Homes of Character Department," The Times.



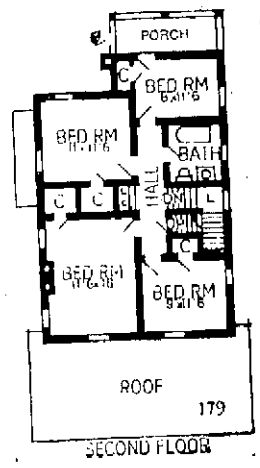
No. 179—A SEVEN-ROOM SHINGLED HOUSE. SIZE 24x40 FEET.



Large shingles laid 10 inches to the weather and stained a rich brown, together with brown trim and white columns, are the features of this exterior.

The plan is very compact, with large living room, dining room with built-in seat and china cupboards, and recess for buffet. A toilet room off rear hall is also a desirable feature. The kitchen is well arranged with ample cupboard space, sink with drainboard, drain boards, recess for range, and convenient broom closet. The refrigerator is in special room, which also forms a vestibule entry to kitchen.

One of the four bedrooms is very large for a house of this size and the others are well planned to provide spaces for beds and other furniture. The attic is finished in one large room. Basement under entire house. This house should be duplicated for from $3500 to $4000.



One Divorce For Every 3 Marriages

[illegible] gentlemen of the court [illegible] issued during that time and it [illegible] are Friday afternoon were was found that 555 had been issued during the divorce proposition, and about 400 of these were people [illegible] they concluded to come the from this county. This means that [illegible] suits filed since January 1st, for every three marriage licenses issued the result was surprising. sued there is a divorce suit filed, [illegible] found that from 9 a. m. January 1, 1913, to Nov. 28th, 5 p. m. [illegible] had been filed in the courts of [illegible] county during this eleven [illegible] 145 cases. This led to an [illegible] tigation of the marriage license

This investigation is startling, as most of these cases are filed by the wives of men whom they charge with all sorts of crimes, but largely of neglect, cruelty, adultery and habitual drunkenness.

Mr. Harsha Resigns From Health Board

P. H. Harsha Saturday handed to Mayor Tynes his resignation as a member of the Board of Health of Portsmouth. Mr. Harsha expressed his appreciation of the honor, but said that the press of business matters made it impossible for him to devote the time to the office which he thought such an important position demands. He therefore asked to be relieved of the responsibility.

Wantt Repairs Made To The Flood Wall

With the spring rainy season approaching, residents of the west end of the city are manifesting concern over the big breaks in the flood wall in that section. A part of the flood wall was washed away at the point and a section was cut out of the wall on Front street to provide a driveway to the county ferry.

During the past six months nothing has been done, either to temporarily repair the broken wall or to provide a gate for the driveway entrance, by the city authorities. A resident of the West End suggests that immediate action should be taken by the city in the way of providing a gate and connecting the broken sections of the flood wall with a temporary wall. This can easily be done, and the time to do it is right now, and not after a high river menaces the town.

C. E. Nourse Will Be On School Board

All doubt as to whether or not C. E. Nourse was elected as a member of the Board of Education at the recent election was dispelled Friday evening at the regular meeting of the Board, when an opinion, rendered by Secretary of State Graves was read to the Board by Clerk William Hazelbeck. Secretary Graves held that the Board had no power to correct any apparent errors that might appear on the tally sheets, and that the result, as originally shown by the official count, must stand.

Mr. Nourse, on the face of the official returns, had a majority of two votes over his nearest opponent, Dr. W. D. Tremper, but in canvassing the returns, the Board detected items of errors in the tally sheets. City Solicitor Mitchell was asked for an opinion and he took it up with the secretary of state, with the result noted above. Unless the election is contested, Nourse is elected, and will receive his commission.

Three contracts, aggregating $2,737.81, were awarded to the Grand Rapids Handsewer company last night by the Board. The first one amounts to $924.17 and is for furnishing the domestic science laboratory; the second one totals $1,087.70, and is for furnishing the chemical laboratory equipment, while the third amounts to $862.14 for furnishing the physical laboratory equipment.

The bid of the Singer Sewing Machine Company for furnishing the sewing machines for the domestic science department was referred to the teachers and text books committee for investigation.

Need of more room at the various buildings was emphasized at the meeting and it was the consensus of opinion among the members of the Board that something would have to be done to relieve the congestion at the buildings. The matter was referred to the building and repair committee, with instructions to investigate and report at an early date.

No action was taken relative to the employment of an engineer at the high school to take the place of Sigmund Burkhart, whose resignation takes effect next Monday. Several applications were received, and the choice will be made by the building and repair committee soon.

Architect Albert Pitzhugh was authorized to prepare plans and specifications for an auxeseptic tank to take care of the sewage of the Lincoln building, where there is no sanitary sewer. He was also instructed to make an inspection of the Campbell avenue building to determine the best plan for an addition to that building.

The regular schedule of bills, amounting to $1,260.15, was allowed and ordered paid.

Six members of the Board were present, including Messrs. Hudson, Tremper, Carlyle, Jackson, Purdum and Sendler.

Bruce Plummer, who for several years has been employed by the Criterion Clothing company, has resigned his position.

WHEN A MAN'S MARRIED

EVENING TIMES SPORTS

Two Largest Boxers in the Ring to Meet

CARL MORRIS.

JESS WILLARD.

Jess Willard and Carl Morris, the largest good heavyweights in the ring, will meet at Madison Square Garden, December 3, or a little later. Morris will weigh more than 225 pounds when in condition and Willard will not be less than 240. The smallest of them is therefore as large as Jim Jeffries.

Morris, Willard and Gunboat Smith are perhaps the best of the white hopes, and from them a champion ought to come. Willard recently boxed Bodel, the Boer, in Milwaukee, and was given a draw by most of those at the ring side. However, some thought that Bodel had fairly won. Consequently an effort has been made to substitute Bodel for Willard. But most of the fight fans of New York have seen Bodel several times and don't believe that he is good for anything. He is popularly believed to have quit to Gunboat Smith, despite the fact that earlier in the year he had given Smith a very hard fight.

Smith did not show well in his contest with Morris, held in Madison Square Garden some weeks ago. Many of those who sat at the ringside believe that he claimed a foul because he had about enough. In the opinion of most of the experts, Morris looks like the best of the white hopes. Were he to defeat Smith and Willard decisively there is no reason why he should not be hailed as the champion of the white hopes. Since Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette, among the blacks, have gone far back, and it seems impossible for Johnson to fight again, he would doubtless be hailed champion heavyweight.

SWEENEY HAS INSIDE TRACK

Can you name the new manager of the Reds?

It is the open season for guessing and this form of diversion is all the rage in Redland. The fans there have picked everybody from Buck Herzog[illegible] down to Connie Mack.

According to the wiseacres, who have their ears to the ground, the choice lies between Jack Hendricks, Roger Bresnahan, Otto Knabe, Mordecai Brown, Bill Sweeney and James T. Sheckard. There are many who believe that Hendricks or Sweeney will be the man. If Sweeney is hooked, Heinie Groh is to be shifted to the short field.

IS CROSS ALL IN?

Leach Cross is a good fighter, but—Willie Ritchie and Joe Rivers are just a little bit better.

That is why Leach, the New Yorker, is not the lightweight champion of the nation today. His fight with Ritchie showed that he lacked several of the essentials of a champion and his feeble attempt to fight Rivers clinched the argument.

Just when the championship seemed within his grasp, Cross was double-crossed by fate and Ritchie left a switch open. Along comes Joe Rivers, the fighting Mexican, on Turkey day and derails Cross' chances.

Leach was clearly outclassed in the Thanksgiving fight. The only thing to his credit in the fight was his gameness. He was all but knocked out twice by his opponent. Yet in the 19th round he displayed panther-like aggressiveness that electrified even his enemies. But it looks as if Leach was just as far from the championship as he was two years ago.

Weinberg To Play

John Weinberg [illegible] the runner [illegible] he is through with baseball. He fully expects to join some minor league team next year and put up his usual good game. With a little practice Weiny says he will come back and will zip the pill around in his former snappy style.

Willie Ritchie, Champion Light weight and Tommy Murphy, Who Box Dec. 10 in San Francisco

WILLIE RITCHIE

TOMMY MURPHY

San Francisco, Nov. 29. Willie Ritchie, champion lightweight of the United States, and Tommy Murphy, perhaps the best lightweight Manhattan has turned out in many years, will weigh in at 135 pounds an hour before their fight in San Francisco, December 10. This is a new stunt introduced by Ritchie for the benefit of the fight fans. But Ritchie, as may be seen by his photograph, is a very sensible and well disposed young man.

Many times in his fights where he has made a ringside weight, Ritchie has got on the scales and then spent an hour putting on his bandages and getting ready for the contest. In the meantime, the audience had to amuse itself as best it could. He decided that when he became important enough to dictate terms he would force a condition for the benefit of the people who pay to see him box.

In his recent contest with Leach Cross in New York, when they were to make 135 pounds, he insisted on weighing in at 9 o'clock for the contest to begin at 10 o'clock. They appeared in the ring after the last preliminary ready to go [illegible]. There was no wait and the audience was on the way home before 11 o'clock at night. Ritchie comes as near being a gentleman fighter as is possible in the game. He is a very mild-mannered young man of good address and pleasant ways. He does not drink or smoke, and has no evil habits. In fact, forgetting for the moment that he is a pugilist, he is a model young man.

BAD YEAR FOR WOLGAST

When the compiler of records get to work this year he'll have to use Ad Wolgast for something else other than the subject of a defeated one in ring bouts. Ad has a jinx that's full grown and developed, and it has piled up a list of mourning periods that is really astounding. Here they are, and when gone over one can only look into the future for Adolph and figure that at 50 years of age he should have a cork leg, a hickory arm, a couple of rows of store teeth and a glass eye:

1906—Left ear "cauliflowered" into a bow-knot.

1907—Right ear scrambled to match.

1908—Bones in both hands cracked and knocked out of joint.

1909—Bridge of nose caved in. Surgical operation necessary.

1910—Arm broken in bout with Jack Redmond. Rebroken in battle with Tommy McFarland.

1911—Stricken with appendicitis. Successfully operated on.

1912—Bones in both hands injured again.

1913—Suffered serious attack of ptomaine poisoning. Ribs cracked in bout with sparring partner.

ROGER BRESNAHAN MAY BE GIVEN JOB AS RED LEADER

Chicago, Nov. 29. Like a duck takes to water the Chicago fans are taking to the announcement that there is a slight possibility that Joe Tinker will return and play for John Evers and his West Side ball club. "Dave Evers, Tinker at short and he'll win the flag in the National league next season," is the talk that you heard around the Loop today.

And after all, there is a chance that Tinker may return to the Cubs. Tinker is willing; Evers is willing; in fact, all, [illegible], and there is no doubt but that President Murphy would [illegible] have the peppery Joe back within the Cub fold. But there is one other who must be willing for a trade. Garry Herrmann, the president-manager czar of the Cincinnati club.

But Herrmann is sadly in need of a first class catcher and it may be that he will cast his eyes Cubward when looking for a worthy partner to Clark. You know Johnny Kling is out with his annual retirement notices, so Garry will have to look around and find a first-class receiver to assist Clark.

He can look all around the National league circuit and still not do as well as he can right here in Chicago. The [illegible] of course, Roger Bresnahan.

WHY I AM IN THE BONEHEAD CLASS

CONNIS MACK

"Honesty In Baseball," is the title of a dissertation the wily, angular, quick-thinking Connie Mack has contributed to the Saturday Evening Post this week. It is splendidly written and all the inside dope relative to the last world's series is convincingly revealed by astute, resourceful and foxy Connie Mack.

Mr. Mack tells explicitly just why he permitted Lapp and Plank to bat in that memorable 3 to 0 game in which Matty and Plank staged a wonderful pitchers' battle.

The well posted, dope-d[illegible] fan will recall that with the score a tie in the ninth Strunk led off with a hit. This is baseball history. Barry followed with a sharp hit to Doyle, who shot the ball past first, Strunk taking third and Barry second. Lapp grabbed a stick and rushed to the plate, yelling as he went, "Here's where I break it up." But he did not. Mercy no. He bounded one into Weiser's hands and Strunk was caught at the plate. Plank then proved to be an easy out and the ag was up, as Murphy rolled one to Matty.

Connie Mack was panned by every fan in the country by not rushing a pinch hitter into the game. All sorts of maledictions were heaped upon his none too broad shoulders for permitting Lapp to bat, with Walsh, Schang and Danny Murphy on the bench. But when Mack sent Plank to the bat the fans thought Mack had lost his mind.

A universal wail echoed through old sleepy Philly when Matty got Plank. [illegible] "What's the matter with Connie?" "Why didn't that [illegible] send in Schang?" "Why in the world didn't that dark-skinned little devil send in Murphy?" "Is he going bug house?"

These were the questions. But the fans hurled at Mack, who sat unflinchingly on the Athletics' bench. Mack was getting mad for thinking. [illegible] of the game.

What had Lapp done that he should have gone to the plate in such a crisis? [illegible] two men on and [illegible] in the dog house? He had struck out, then he singled and the third time up Doyle robbed him of a hit. Connie figured that he had his eye on the ball and was due for a long fly, which would have counted Strunk. [illegible] of the [illegible] but Lapp was not equal to the emergency and on his tap to Wiltse Strunk was forced out at the plate.

[illegible] the long-nosed mutt. He was flirting with the foolish mutt. He was dipped beyond the remotest doubt. But cold-blooded Mack twirled his thumbs and winked "Tact Ge Bibble."

In his essay to the Post Mack defends his position in that critical situation most admirably. He says he kept Lapp in the game because he was hitting Matty better each time up. Therefore, by an analytical and scientific deduction Lapp was due for a hit, but he fell [illegible] ignominiously.

What if Plank was yanked and a fresh pitcher sent in? Wouldn't the Giants tee up on him and win the game? Of course they would. That's what [illegible] of the fans thought. So did the astute Connie, he of the long thank [illegible] and closed mouth. So Plank batted because of his wonderful pitching on this history-making day and not because Mack thought he would wench [illegible] that was safe and sane [illegible]. This brought the foolish little Eddie Murphy, to the plate. Well, he too fell a victim of Matty's deceptiveness and bounced one clear to the pitcher's box.

Having weathered the storm and prevented his team's chances from being shipwrecked on the shore of disappointment, Matty retired the Athletics in order in the tenth. But all this occurred after the Giants had garnered four tallies in a belated rally.

But to this day many of the short-sighted, narrow minded fans will criticise Mack for not inserting Col. Pinch Hitter, he of swat and fame when there were two on in the ninth and no one down. They will insist and asseverate with all the earnestness and sincerity they can summon to their aid that had Mack done this the series would have ended in four days and the Athletics would have turned a trick that no other pennant winning club has been able to do.

The Chicago Cubs came near doing it when they beat Detroit four and tied the other one back in 1908.

WILL IT BE TINKER FOR BRIDWELL?

Now that it is the open season for speculation the fans are indulging in their [illegible] and are speculating while the speculation is [illegible].

There are many close students of the game who sincerely expect to hear of a trade [illegible] Tinker back to Chicago, the scene of his early triumphs on the diamond, and Bridwell back [illegible] the market and no doubt Charley Murphy of the Cubs will make a tempting bid for [illegible] that with Tinker at short the Cubs would beat Pittsburgh and the Giants out next season.

Bridwell would not be pleased with such a trade. He is [illegible] fans in Redland. He is well pleased with his surroundings [illegible] year. But the fans who are speculatively inclined [illegible] that small doubt exists but what it will be Tinker for Bridwell [illegible].

The Arenic Game Is Enjoying Boom

The game is not losing any of its popularity. Some lad whose mind runs to figures has doped it out that there were 83 scraps on Thanksgiving day, one or two being staged in nearly all the big cities.

This form of sport is getting a solid footing because the game is being run on the square. Boxing commissions, strict, law-abiding officials have reduced faking to a minimum. No longer can a second rater stall through a battle just to cop the kale. He has to be as good as his opponent or take a good walloping.

FLEET FOOTED NIXON IS BOSS HITTER OF CHAMPS

To William Nixon, the crack outfielder who held down the right field precinct at Millbrook park for the Cobblers during the last two months of the season, goes the honor of leading the team in hitting, according to the official averages just issued by President Real's office, although Johnny Baggan, the hard working left fielder, is the logical claimant of the title of champion swatter, as he [illegible] practically every game of the season.

Nixon swatted at a .326 gait in 57 games, while Baggan fell only 11 points shy of this figure in 137 games, closing with an average of .315.

Billy Southworth, sold to the [illegible] club in the middle of the season, batted .306 in 77 games, being the only other player outside of the two named above who finished over the .300 mark. Like Harry Hooper of the Red Sox, Irish Conwell fell one point short of the charmed circle, but unlike the Red Sox gardener, Irish is not out $1000 of bonus money.

The official averages show that John Weinberg, released during the latter half of the season, batted at a .274 clip [illegible] players [illegible]:

Nixon, .326.
Baggan, .315.
Southworth, .306.
Conwell, .299.
H. Cain, .295.
Edwards, .274.
Weinberg, .274.
Becknell, .267.
Loos, .240.
E. Cain, .240.
Donalds, .224.
Reynolds, .216.
Smith, .198.
Beers, .196.
Childs, .185.

Rumor Is Spiked

President Ebbetts of the Brooklyn team for the forty-eleventh time has spiked the silly rumor that he has placed Nap Rucker, the greatest of all southpaws, on the market. "I might as well close up my gate if I peddled Rucker," eagerly remarked Ebbetts when asked about the annual rumor that Rucker is on the market. "Another blast from the rumor factory," said Eb[illegible].

HUNTINGTON DEFEATED

The Huntington High school team, which defeated P. H. S. so decisively on two separate and distinct times this season, lost the state championship of West Virginia Thursday when Charleston beat them 6 to 0. Huntington has been nibbling at champion-ship bait for several weeks. Just nibbling, that's all.

WIVES' COOKING AND PAINTING DRIVE HUSBANDS TO DRINK.

Ever since the day that the ark landed on Mount Ararat and Noah and his family, heartily tired of a protracted cold water diet, hustled forth for the materials with which to start the grape juice and cider fads, mankind generally has inclined toward drinkables which have a bit of tang in their makeup. Water, to be sure, is not to be despised upon occasions—and there be those who declare that it has no superior for internal as well as external use. But, according to a considerable complaint, when used as a beverage it leaves behind neither taste nor bite. Nothing over which one may smack the lips. Nothing which lingers like a pleasant memory.

Perhaps it was for this reason that our forebears of the long, long ago displayed a decided tendency to turn the juices of the apple and the grape into concoctions pleasing to the palate, and to these later generations have added drinkable mixtures made from corn, barley, rye, the modest hop and the blushing peach.

Recently a man was made the defendant in a separation suit, brought on the ground that he showed too great a fondness for liquids which "had a punch" in their composition.

Did the gentleman dodge the issue or spar for wind while he prepared a denial? Not he. Stepping boldly into the limelight, he acknowledged that he took an occasional drink and then sprang the big, new scintillating excuse for occasionally climbing down from his seat on the water wagon.

His novel plea was that because of the highly seasoned food served him at home by his wife he was compelled to take a little drink now and then to quench the fires in his stomach.

Something decidedly different about that defence, eh?

MR. SCUDDER WILL SPEAK AT IRONTON

Ironton, O., Nov. 29.—Messrs. N. J. Rutz and H. H. Campbell, a committee appointed to procure a speaker to address the Board of Trade and Ironton citizens, announce that at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon Attorney G. D. Scudder, of Portsmouth, will deliver the address. Every member of the Lawrence county bar should attend this address, as well as every other citizen who can possibly get away at that hour. Mr. Scudder's theme will relate to the Boy Scout movement and he is particularly fitted to talk on this subject.

FISKE O'HARA WAS GREAT HIT

As quaint as many of the hamlets in the country where its scenes are laid, as refreshing and sweet as a breeze from a clover field and as fragrant as a freshly picked rose in June time, "In Old Dublin," Fiske O'Hara's new play, charmed and delighted an audience of good size at the Grand Friday evening. No sweeter, more picturesque and quainter play has ever been seen here and the audience enjoyed it to such an extent that Mr. O'Hara, that pleasing romantic actor and lyric tenor, and his excellent company received what was nothing short of an ovation.

Replete with delicious comedy, prettily staged and an excellent vehicle "In Old Dublin" will always be remembered as one of the best comedies ever brought to the Grand. Irish home life faithless and true to nature was revealed with all its simplicity and wholesomeness and there were few in the audience who did not wish that their forefathers had kissed the blarney stone or had taken a boat ride on the historical river Liffey. And there were so many persons of this ereed in the audience that Mr. O'Hara was recalled and recalled. He sang so pleasingly and repeated his vocal selections so spontaneously that the audience almost fell in love with the big, broad shouldered, smiling comedian. Fiske O'Hara literally sang his way into the hearts of his audience last night. The possessor of a rich tenor voice full of fibre and golden quality he threaded the story of the play with solos and they served to further enhance the attractiveness of "In Old Dublin." The author of the piece played right into Mr. O'Hara's hand as he should have done. There isn't a burdensome plot to unravel, but there is just enough continuity and just enough sentiment is subtlely interwoven to make it a theatrical production of excellent fabric. It is all wool and a yard wide.

In the piece honesty triumphs over deceptiveness and the efforts of the "villains" to filch the plans of a boat Neil Powers (Fiske O'Hara) has drawn for the annual regatta in Ireland are thwarted and around this incident most of the story centers. The play was beautifully staged in three acts and beyond a doubt "In Old Dublin" was declared to be the best comedy of this or many other seasons. As pure as the dew and as bright as the sunshine it will always be recalled here with pleasure.

During the progress of the play Mr. O'Hara sang "Rose, Rose, Rose," "Love At Last," "Peggy Gilroy," "The Minstrel Boy," and many encores.

Mr. O'Hara has a fine stage presence and as Neil Powers he is lovable. He is an actor in addition to a vocalist and he handled his difficult role with fine discriminating taste. Ethel von Waldron as Rose Stratton, Marie Quinn as Peggy, Lou Ripley as Ann Gilroy, a widow, H. Fay Lashwell as Peter Kane, Albert West as Martin Ferguson were splendid in their characters and received their meed of the liberal applause that was continuously showered upon the company. With its homely humor, its delightful situations and its nerve soothing dialogue that smacks of home-rule aspiring Ireland, "In Old Dublin" will be remembered as one of the best things of the kind in a theatrical way ever brought to the Grand. Mr. O'Hara can come as often as he chooses. A hearty welcome always await him here.

Sage Tea Keeps Your Hair Dark

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Lustre and Abundance

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray. Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home, or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears. After another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Girls Enjoyed A Marathon Hike

Three girls of Harrisonville enjoyed Thanksgiving in a unique way and established a record for marathon walking.

Starting early in the morning, Misses May Rickey, Vina Shuter and May VanGorder walked to Sciotoville and New Boston, and then taking the Long Run road walked home. Enroute on the return trip they enjoyed a steaming supper at the home of Miss Bertha Krull.

The trip consumed seven hours and a half, excellent time considering atmospherical conditions and the shape of the roads.

Expecting 40 At O. S. U. Banquet

Pleasantly informal will be the annual banquet of the graduates and ex-students of Ohio State University of Scioto and Adams counties, to be held Saturday evening in the new high school building. Responses have been received from about forty who are eligible to attend the banquet, and covers will be laid for this number. The Ladies' Aid Society of Bigelow church will serve the banquet.

No set program will be followed during the after dinner ceremonies. Philip Jacobs will read the letter addressed to the alumni by Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of the Ohio State University, following which everyone present will be called upon to relate the funniest experience that happened to them while a student at the university. Will C. [illegible] will officiate as toastmaster.

During the evening all of the old time college songs so dear to every former student of the university will be sung, while the room will ring at periodical intervals with the college yells of the O. S. U. A similar program will be followed out at similar banquets all over the state, November [illegible] of each year having been [illegible] Ohio State University Day.

The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Dan Thomas, Philip Jacobs, Miss Terese Kennedy, Dr. George S. Mathews and Dr. O. H. Tatje.

RIVER NEWS

Heavy fogs along the Ohio river valley are crippling packet service and practically all of the boats are forced to the banks.

Towboats are also forced to lay up and the regular schedule of traffic, speaking in the vernacular is "shot to pieces."

The Tacoma which is scheduled here Sunday will be unable to make the wharf owing to delay in the fogs. The Greyhound, engaged in the local trade, between Huntington and Portsmouth, ran afoul the heavy fog Friday and arrived in Portsmouth Saturday morning. The craft tagged the banks at Sciotoville last night. Only one boat defies the blanket of mist. The little Klondike, plying between Portsmouth and Rome, refuses to be bluffed by the fog and although retarded in its progress continues to make regular trips.

Rains have failed to effect the river and it continues to fall. The local gauge Saturday morning registered 10 feet and 9 inches. Boat departures Sunday are, The Greenwood for Pomeroy and the Ohio for Cincinnati.

KNABE IS SPOKEN OF

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 29.—Otto Knabe, second baseman of the Phillies, is in a receptive mood if Garry Herrmann wants him as manager of the Cincinnati Reds to succeed Joe Tinker, who apparently has been fired. Not only this, but President Baker of the Phillies is with Knabe and is willing to assist in fostering the ambitions of the "best ball player on the Philadelphia National league team."

Have You A Want---Fill It With A Times Want.

We've Done This For You

We have added twelve feet to the length of our jewelry store. We have purchased fourteen NEW show cases. We have added, through these agencies, nearly one-third more to our display space.

This makes YOUR Christmas shopping a pleasure instead of a worry. It gives you opportunities to select gifts easily and thoughtfully. Moreover, you may thus compare the relative merits of the various selections. We show all of our stock upon your request, thus showing favoritism to every one, instead of to a select few.

Furthermore, it is to our interest to sell you the very best value at the lowest price at which articles of merit can be legitimately sold. This policy accounts for the many customers we serve every year as the American public has a great regard and a keen scent for an absolutely square deal. It also accounts for the joy and delight with which a gift, no matter how great or small, is received when the name "Albert Zoellner" is embossed on the gift case.

Lastly every published word in our advertising and every statement made by any of our salesforce, is backed by the whole value of our establishment.

Through these columns we expect to keep you posted on the many dainty gifts with which you may solve your gift problems.

Choose now, have your selections laid aside, and help us to serve you to your best advantage. "Truth in advertising implies honesty of dealing."

WOMEN and MEN

With Blood Diseases, Shattered Nerves, Gloomy Hopeless Forebodings, Haggard Faces and Sunken Eyes:

Back to Robust Vitality

OTHERS HAVE BEEN CURED, WHY NOT YOU?

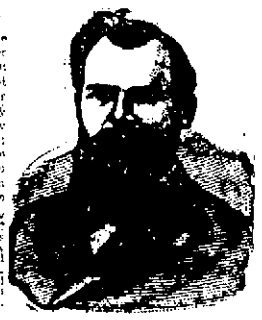
Come and Be Cured

BY CERTAIN AND QUICK METHODS FOR CURING DISEASES OF WOMEN AND MEN

No Experimenting—No Guess Work—No Failures

Nervous and Blood Diseases, Failing Strength, Rupture, Kidney, Bladder and Chronic Diseases and All Chronic Diseases Peculiar to Women and Men, I Cure.

This Is The Way You Feel



There is usually a pain across the small of your back; blue rings under your eyes; specks before your eyes; your sleep does not rest you; you get up in the morning feeling tired; your mind at times wanders; your memory is poor; you are losing flesh; hollow eyed; whites of your eyes are yellow; you are fearful; always expecting the worst to happen; very anxious; you start in your sleep; and awake much frightened; stinging pain in the bowels; no appetite. Do you know what causes you to feel like this? The condition will not improve of its own accord, but instead you will grow gradually worse and eventually end in nervous debility or neurasthenia. If you have ever taken treatment and failed to get cured, it is because you never had the proper treatment. Consult me at once.

If You Take Any Treatment, Why Not Get the Best to be Had Anywhere?

THE BEST WILL COST YOU NO MORE

My method of curing Blood Diseases, Nerve-Vital Debility, Varicocele, Stricture, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, Piles, Fistula and all Diseases Peculiar to Men are unequaled and recommended by the many whom I have cured.

CERTAINTY OF CURE IS WHAT YOU WANT

Many patients have told me after I cured them, that they hesitated at first to come to me on account of never having received relief elsewhere and they had almost become so skeptical as to think there was no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat just such cases, and to prove that such cases are curable.

Female Diseases And Weaknesses cured by non-operative treatment. Investigate my plan of treatment. FREE OF CHARGE by either calling upon me or writing a statement of your trouble. Many cases can be cured by Home Treatment.

Other Diseases Blood, Skin, Bowel, Liver, Nervous, Kidney, Stomach, Bladder, Heart and Lung Diseases, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Lumbago, Bronchitis, St. Vitus' Dance, Scrofula, Eczema, Boils, Ulcers, Goitre, Growths, Tumors, Hemorrhoids, Deformities, Malformations and all other Chronic Diseases of men and women.

Important Facts I am a permanent resident of Cincinnati. I own and conduct my own business. I have no branch offices; no blood substitutes; traveling agents. When you come to my office you see me personally. I treat all patients myself. Treatment limited to chronic and special diseases of men and women; 31 years experience. Consultation free.

Correspondence One personal visit is always preferred, but if you cannot call at my office, write me your symptoms fully. My home treatment by correspondence is always successful. Consultation Free.

CLASS OF 24 TAKEN INTO THE D. OF A.

One of the most enjoyable meetings in the history of White Lily Council, No. 81, Daughters of America, was the one held Friday evening, at which a class of twenty-four were received into membership. The original class consisted of thirty-five candidates but eleven of them were unavoidably detained from being present.

Mrs. Ruth A. Arnold, state counsellor, was present at the meeting last night and made a stirring address on the work the order is doing throughout the state. She complimented the local council highly for the rapid progress it is making, and also the degree team for its splendid exemplification of the ritualistic work. Miss Mare Darlington, past junor state counsellor and district deputy, of Gallipolis, failed to arrive as expected.

Seven applications for membership were received at last night's meeting? Hardly a meeting night passes but what some candidates are taken in, and the Daughters of America is fast becoming one of the largest and strongest auxiliary bodies in the city. Miss Esla Dixon, of Bond street, was presented with a large silk pennant as a reward for securing the most members during the past week.

Large delegations from the Millbrook Council of New Boston and from the Stockdale Council attended the meeting last night. After the meeting was over a social session was held, during which delicious refreshments were served. Music was furnished by Arthur Blake and Sarah Hesser.

Those admitted to membership last evening were: Anna Pierson, Miles B. Cooper, Sarah J. Lindermann, Elza Lady, Pearl Nichols, Ethel Nichols, Addie Quickel, Jessie Quickel, Cora Ray, Bertha Kirkendall, Frank Wolf, Lula Puckett, Della Puckett, Ray Chestnut, Arthur Blake, Nathan Kent, Charles Etzel, Elizabeth Warner, Allen M. Roth, Clarence Stevenson, George Dixon, Thos. Hamilton, and Lawrence Woods.

Mrs. Arnold left early Saturday morning for McDermott, where she will attend a flag raising to be held by the McDermott Council, which presented a large silk American flag to the McDermott school. She will make the presentation address. Several members of the Portsmouth council will leave this afternoon for McDermott to attend the ceremonies.

Revival Closes

Revival meetings, which have been in progress at the South Portsmouth church the last three weeks, closed Friday night. Rev. Hobson wound up the services with a stirring appeal to the congregation for better work in the Lauree.

FOUR NEW BEN HURS

The Tribe of Ben Hur held an interesting meeting Friday evening. The attendance was large and a class of four initiated—Dr. Walter Daehler, Charles Latham, Mrs. Harry M. Sickles and John P. Egnew.

Eight new applications were received. This order is having a healthy, gradual increase in membership.

Boys In Blue Will Hold A Memorial

J. J. Davidson, A. J. Flaney and W. H. Williams, members of Bailey Post, G. A. R., were appointed last evening by Post Commander Milstead as a committee to make arrangements for the observance of Memorial Sunday on December 14th. The Post had a most enjoyable meeting, a large attendance of the members being present.

Commander Milstead announced during the meeting that he would recommend J. J. Davidson for appointment to the staff of the National Commander, and Louis Knapp and Firman Smith for members of the staff of the state commander.

During the business session, it was decided to defer the lecture of Rev. Charles W. Blodgett, of Cincinnati, until after the Christmas holidays, the date to be fixed by the committee appointed at a former meeting, which has not been discharged.

At the close of the business session, the members of the Post indulged in an old-fashioned songfest, conducted by John McMillan, a guest at the meeting. All of the old songs of the Boys in Blue were sung with vigor and enthusiasm and this part of the meeting was hugely enjoyed.

New Lord Chief Justice Is Really a Young Man

Sir Rufus Daniel Isaacs, who succeeds Lord Alverstone as lord chief justice of England, is a young man, as occupants of this high judicial place go. He was born in 1860, and is therefore fifty-three years of age.

He began life on the London Stock Exchange and later studied law. It was not until 1887, when he was twenty-seven years of age, that he was admitted to the bar. In 1901 he entered the House of Commons as a Liberal member, and six years later was appointed solicitor general. The same year he became attorney general, which place he has held till he was named lord chief justice.

Birmingham, Ala.—F. L. Willis, of the firm of Hartline & Willis, Pharmacists, suffered greatly from asthma and bronchitis, so bad he could not attend to business. As he writes: "I got no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It entirely removed those choking sensations, and never failed to produce an easy and comfortable condition of the throat and lungs." Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and accept no substitute. In the yellow package. For sale by The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy. adv

Meeting Of Hod Carriers

The local branch of the Hod Carriers' union, No. 83, held a splendid meeting Friday night. Four new members were admitted. Before an adjournment was taken talks were made by Harry Strong and William H. Martin of the Building and Trades council.

BOYNTON HAD CLOSE CALL

Accompanied by his wife and children, Arthur Boynton, a former prosshan of this city, now employed as millwright in the plant of the Carnegie Steel company at Hazelwood, Pa., left Portsmouth Tuesday for Hazelwood, where they will make their future home. Mr. Boynton arrived here last Saturday to make arrangements for the removal of his family to that city.

Mr. Boynton was the victim of an unfortunate accident at Hazelwood on November 17th, in which he miraculously escaped fatal injury. While working on an electric crane 60 feet overhead his body came in contact with a live wire and he was knocked to the ground. He was rushed to the hospital and given prompt medical attention, where it was found that his injuries were not as serious as had been feared. He was discharged from that institution within a few days and came at once to Portsmouth to complete arrangements for the removal of his family, which were delayed on account of the accident.

Branson Penn, a prominent citizen of Rarden, was in the city Friday.

SERMONS AND SERVICES AT THE VARIOUS CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN
Court and Third Streets
John Wirt Dunning, Minister

All regular Sunday services will be held tomorrow. Bible school meets at nine o'clock. Last Sunday saw the best attendance since Easter. All members and teachers of the school are urged to be present tomorrow. The Men's Class, led by the pastor, will meet at the same hour. The topic for study will be "Present Day Honesty," a study of the eighth commandment. All members of the class are urged to be present and all men are invited.

At ten-thirty, morning worship. The subject of the sermon by the pastor will be "Compensations."

Junior Endeavor at two o'clock. Boys and girls are invited. Senior Endeavor at six. Topic, "Our Church at Work for the Nation."

Evening worship at seven o'clock. The pastor will give the second sermon on the Ten Commandments, dealing with the subject of "Irreverence." This will be a study of the second and third commandments. All forms of modern irreverence will be discussed, with special mention of prevalent type of "band wagon religion" in our churches, and the frivolous character of much of our worship. The chorus choir and quartett will sing. A hearty invitation is given the public to these services.

The music tomorrow will be:

Morning

Anthem, "O, Holy Father" Marchetti-Parks Mr. Boyd, Miss Berry, Mrs. Storck, Mr. Schwartz.

Solo, "Great Peace Have They"—Rogers—Miss Berry.

Postlude, "Capriccio"—Lemaigre.

To The Young Expectant Mother

Women of Experience Advise the Use of Mother's Friend.

There is a certain degree of trepidation in the minds of most women in regard to the subject of motherhood. The longing to possess is often contradicted by the inherent fear of a period of distress.

But there need be no such dread in view of the fact that we have a most noble remedy in what is known as Mother's Friend. This is an external application that has a wonderful influence and control over the muscular tissues of the abdomen. By its daily use the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments all gently expand without the slightest strain; there is no pain, no nausea, no nervousness; what was dreaded as a severe physical ordeal becomes a calm, serene, joyful anticipation that has its impress such as our foremost teachers of Eugenics are striving to drill into the minds of the present generation.

In almost every community there are women who have used Mother's Friend, and they are the ones that recovered quickly, conserved their health and strength to thus preside over families destined by every rule of physiology and the history of successful men and women to repeat the story of greater achievement.

Mother's Friend is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Bradfield Regulator Co., 135 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Write them for their instructive book to expectant mothers. You will find Mother's Friend on sale by all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.

Visited Relatives.

Carlos Chapman, a barber, has returned from Lancaster where he spent Thanksgiving day with relatives.

Columbus, Nov. 29. Important changes are made in a reorganization of the state mining department which has just been effected by the state industrial commission.

Four deputy inspectors who have been with the department for many years retire and are succeeded by men selected by the commission after competitive examination.

Dennis H. Sullivan, who was secretary and member of the state board of arbitration which was wiped out by the new industrial commission act, was appointed to succeed Alexander Smith at New Philadelphia as inspector of one of the large Eastern Ohio districts.

Morris Albaugh, of Murray City, a working miner and representative of the miners on the special commission which is to decide the basis on which miners shall be paid, is appointed to succeed Inspector Edward Kennedy of Carbon Hill.

Andrew Gibson, a well known miner of Jacksonville, Athens county, takes the place of Inspector John L. McDonald, of Glouster, that county.

In the big Massillon district, Evan Lewis, of Harmon, Stark county, succeeds W. H. Miller of Massillon. In point of service Miller is one of the oldest men in the department.

The appointments take effect Monday, except in the case of Mr. Albaugh, who will not finish his work as a member of the special commission until the middle of the month and will not take up his inspectorship work until the commission files its report with the governor.

J. C. Davies, of Zanesville, the chief inspector, is not disturbed by the reorganization. He remains at the head of the department which hereafter will be known as the division of mines. The inspectors will be known as deputy inspectors.

They will draw $1800 salaries, the same as heretofore. The appointments are for no fixed term, the officials serving just so long as they give efficient service. They will be under the protection of the civil service law which goes into full effect Jan. 1.

While the arbitration board is wiped out, the new law gives the industrial commission authority to appoint a mediator of industrial disputes.

Something far more potential than most people imagine is the apple industry in Ohio. It's worth somewhere between $7,000,000 and $10,000,000 in revenue every year. That's a shade better than the wheat crop can boast of and nearly twice as much as can be claimed for the hog industry. And yet the modest apple never pretends to demand a third of the attention that usually is lavished upon other industries. Now comes a brand new movement designed to give the culture of the "king of fruit" the belated interest that it has long deserved. It is proposed that the state establish a bureau of horticulture for the promotion of fruit in general and of the apple in particular. The Ohio Horticultural Society is one of the agencies back of the new idea. This society is private in its aim and purposes and it believes that to have the state establish a public bureau would be in line with the major importance of the fruit industry of the state. But it develops that the state agricultural commission has had the same idea in mind for some time. There exists now a state nursery and orchard inspection department but its scope is not considered to be broad enough to accomplish the constrictive purposes sought to be accomplished. Wherefore it is now proposed to change the nursery department into a horticulture bureau and make the raising and care of fruit an interest of state wide import.

The state administration plan to make Ohio State University a help to the state departments and institutions in a concrete and definite way is taking form. Governor Cox has recommended that the entire state department of health remove itself to the state university and virtually become a part of the state institution of learning. It is the governor's idea that both the department of health and the educational institution would benefit by the merging of interests. The new step also would constitute an advance in the direction of general educational extension work that has borne such admittedly excellent fruit in the state of Wisconsin.

Another Robbery In The Busines District

In the heart of the business district another daring robbery was pulled off Friday night when the Ideal cafe, 913 Gallia street, conducted by Louis Ditty, was entered and $27 in cash and a quantity of liquor taken. About three weeks ago robbers raided Anderson Bros.' store and escaped with plunder estimated at $1200.

Access to the saloon was gained through the cellar. The staple in the cellar grating on Gallia street was pried loose, opening an underground passage to the saloon.

Overlooked Part of Money.

By means of this avenue the robbers reached the first floor and helped themselves to change concealed in the ice box. The thief or thieves took the one containing $27 in quarters, halves and dollars. Glasses containing $13 in dimes and one containing $10 in nickels were overlooked. The cash register holding $5 in change, was not touched.

Owing to the large stock on hand, it is impossible for the owner to determine whether any liquor was taken or not, but it is thought that a few quarts left the saloon when the prowlers did.

Escaped By Front Door.

After securing the plunder the robbers returned to the street by the front door. George Glass, a bartender, found it open when he opened the cafe for business Saturday morning. Joe Baer locked it after closing the saloon Friday night. And the police haven't the semblance of a clue to the guilty parties.

The dense fog which swathed the city throughout the night Friday gave the parties excellent opportunity and cloak in which to perpetrate their robbery. It is becoming almost uncanny the daring with which the business district is being raided and the judgment shown by the robbers in selecting ideal climatic and atmospherical conditions.

Miss Reed To Be At Bible Class

Miss Metty Jane Reed will be the star attraction at the First Christian church Bible school Sunday morning. Promptly at nine o'clock the orchestra will begin. Miss Reed will speak first to the primary department and later to the whole school. She is justly popular. Children and old people alike are interested in her charming stories.

The communion service is at 10:30 and after this ordinance is observed Miss Reed will speak to the church.

The ever popular male quartet is advertised to sing at the Bible school hour. It is possible that Mr. John Davis will be present and direct the singing. He has been invited. Let no condition of weather keep you away from this feast of good things. Supt. Howland and Mrs. Howland are home from Davenport with more enthusiasm and wisdom than ever before. Mrs. G. Wash Williams will be there with her new baby. You will want to see the little Miss Efficiency. Sheridan has come back with a barrel of information and a hogshead of inspiration.

The Christian Endeavor will see and hear Miss Reed at 6 o'clock and in the 7 o'clock meeting the minister will preach a short sermon and Miss Reed will give one of her inimitable readings.

MOTHER LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

IF CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED, GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from their play to empty their bowels, become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you will have a well playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

Train Had A Close Call

John E. Williams, general manager of the Excelsior Shoe company, arrived home Friday evening from a business trip to Columbus.

Mr. Williams says that No. 4 on the N. & W. Friday evening narrowly escaped being wrecked just outside of Columbus owing to the dense fog. A freight train was missed only a few inches as it was pulling out to let the passenger by. In an effort to get clear of No. 4 the freight engine was derailed on a siding.

Mrs. Nannie Wright Caused Sensation

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 29—Mrs. D. M. Wright, of Ironton, O., who with her husband and sister, Mrs. Frances H. Williamson, represent the minority stockholders of the Superior Portland Cement company who are fighting Justus Collins, President and assignee of the company, in a suit now in hearing in the United States District court, created a mild sensation in the court room yesterday, when she testified that she personally supervised the firing of her blast furnaces and the operation of other large manufacturing enterprises in which she is interested. She stated that the personal attention she gives to her various interests nets her an income of between $30,000 and $35,000 per year.

Eugene Zimmerman, former President of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway company, and an international figure in big business, who is among those named as defendants in this suit, was also an interesting witness yesterday. In explaining his connection with the making of an assignment by the company to Collins, Mr. Zimmerman stated that he had acted for self-preservation. He said he did not care who held the sack so long as it was not himself. Zimmerman stated that while he had offered the resolution authorizing the assignment, he had had no intimation that Collins contemplated such a move until a few minutes before the stockholders' meeting was called to order on October 31. He said he offered the resolution because Collins told him that their only chance was to get rid of the bonds which had been issued by the company. Zimmerman stated that he had plenty of money to finance the company and would have gone to its assistance but for the bonds.

The taking of testimony was concluded last evening. Arguments of counsel were presented this morning.

Goes Back Home

Will McGuire left Friday afternoon for his home in Huntington, after spending Thanksgiving with local friends.

Lost License Cause Of Much Trouble

Rudy Kountz, the New Boston saloonist, is having no end of trouble as the result of the mysterious disappearance of his saloon license Thanksgiving Day. Word came from the State Licensing Board Saturday morning that it would be necessary for Mr. Kountz to make affidavit, setting forth that he was the owner of the place, that he was granted a license and other important facts connected with the case, before a duplicate license could be issued to him. It will be some time next week before the matter is adjusted, and in the meantime, his place will remain closed.

Upon receipt of this information, Mr. Kountz immediately engaged Attorney Anselm Skelton to draw up the affidavit and see that all of the instructions of the State Board are complied with. The signed affidavit was mailed to the State Board Saturday afternoon, along with other information desired by the Board. He hopes to receive his duplicated license by Monday or Tuesday of next week, although it may take longer to dispose of the case.

Mr. Kountz's experience will no doubt serve as a lesson to other saloonists in the county, who will exercise extreme care in guarding the precious piece of paper which gives them the right to engage in business.

A BAD YEAR.

SOCIETY

Class Number 14 of the Grandview Avenue Christian church gave a banquet last evening to the men of the church. An excellent program was presented by the women of the church as follows:

Piano, Miss Caltholin Clark, of Huntington.

Music, Miss Fannie Drennan, violin, and Miss Anna Book, piano.

Vocal, Miss Bessie Sisler.

Piano, Mrs. J. P. Bratt.

The large number presented enjoyed the program which followed the banquet.

Mr. E. Stanley Morgan is coming from Oak Hill to attend the Evan Williams recital and will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Riley.

Miss Floy Hammond will give a talk at the vesper service to morrow afternoon at the Y. W. C. A.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tracey on High street was the scene of a children's party this afternoon from two till five o'clock. The party was given in celebration of the fifth birthday anniversary of their little son, Harry. Games were enjoyed by the little ones, one of the pleasing features being a peanut hunt in which little favors were given. In serving the refreshments Mrs. Tracey was assisted by Miss Pearl White. The thirty five little guests were invited to the dining room which was adorned in large yellow fluffy chrysanthemums and the pretty birthday cake was the center of attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Jones and Mr. T. J. Evans of Jackson will be the guests of Mrs. W. G. Peters while here to ttend the Evan Williams recital Monday evening.

Herbert D. Hemenway, staff lecturer on Civic Improvement of the National Society for Broader Education will be in Portsmouth the week of December 8th. During his stay he will talk in the different schools in the city and will give three lectures in the High School auditorium on the evenings of December 10, 11 and 12th. Mrs. Emily Pancoast has been in the city for the past several weeks in the interest of this work. Mr. Hemenway gives his lectures on "How to Beautify Home Grounds, How To Make Home and City Attractive Without Money," and many other subjects which will be of interest to all.

Miss Bessie Hutchison was the charming little hostess at a party Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hutchison, on Third street. Games and music were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. The guest list follows: Margaret Haupin, Dorothy Dowling, Helen Dowling, Mildred Werner, Lucile Werner, Virginia Carroll, Georgia Fisher, Elizabeth Dudait, Mildred Warner, Thelma Warner, Audrey Wamser, Mildred Brown, Marie Schlichter, Bessie, Dorothy and Hope Hutchison.

Walker Sent To The Reformatory

Dexter Walker was, Saturday, sentenced by Judge Beatty to the Mansfield Reformatory or Intermediate Penitentiary. It will be remembered that Dexter Walker, who is about 18 years old, a few weeks ago, shot and wounded one Edward Callahan. A hearing was had before Mayor Lewis at New Boston and he was bound over to the grand jury. When brought to jail it was found that his age let him within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and the case was certified down from the common pleas court to the probate court, where a hearing was had a few days ago.

Judge Beatty reserved his decision and as he usuall does began a rigid investigation and this investigation developed the fact that Dexter Walker, although young in years, was a bad actor.

Walker's parents live at or near Williamson, W. Va., and it was learned that at a ball game being played at Williamson last summer the sheriff of that county arrested a friend of Walker's for some crime, and while the sheriff was on the way from the ball ground to the jail, Walker appeared on the scene and getting the drop on the sheriff stuck a revolver in his face and compelled him to release his prisoner. Then the prisoner and Walker skipped the country.

With this information and the shooting of Callahan being without provocation, Judge Beatty thought best to place him in safe keeping for a while.

Presbyterians Are Winners In Game

In one of the fastest practice games of the season the First Presbyterians defeated the All Stars by the score of 36 to 5. The troop three boys completely outclassed their opponents in all departments of the game, the pass work of Matthews and Wagner featuring. This team is fast developing and expect to have the fastest team in the city league this winter.

The feature of the game was a sensational long field goal made by Kielman, of the loosers. The score: Presbyterians 36, All Stars 5.

Helmsin	center	Nye

Cook's Certificate Has Been Held Up

Pending an investigation of an informal charge that Elza Cook, successful candidate for the board of education in Washington township on the West Side, hauled voters to the polls on last election day, his certificate of election has been held up by the board of election.

Charges and counter charges have been made by voters in Washington township and the whole affair is to be thoroughly aired at a meeting of the board to be held possibly next Wednesday. Mr. Cook comes back and says the reports were started by his enemies and that he will have something of interest to say when the board looks into the authenticity of the varied rumors linked with his election.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses were issued in probate court Saturday:

Frank Jenkins, aged 22, a laborer, and Miss Ada Nichols, aged 16, a shoeworker, both of the city. Squire Shakespeare officiated.

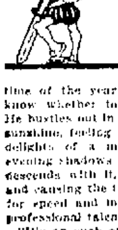
The Innocent Bystander.

By Walter A. Sinclair



"HERE come those melancholy days, the saddest of the year," announced the Regular Fellow.

"When the trees begin to leave, eh?" came back the Innocent Bystander. "They're sad days, all right, especially for the man who has to lay in a stock of coal. This is the time of the year when a fellow doesn't know whether to start his fires or not. He bustles out in the permeating morning sunshine, feeling like he was enjoying the delights of a mild summer, and when evening shadows fall a nice chilly ice belt descends with it, enveloping the suburbs and causing the teeth to do a tango which for speed and music has it all over the professional talent.

"It's on such evenings that the head of the house scuttles down into the cellar and commences fussing with the furnace, although he would much rather sit around reading his paper while puffing a Havana satisfaction filler and allowing his heavy dinner to digest.

"These nippy nights are reproaches to the fellow who threw into the waste basket those alluring advertisements which the coal dealers sent around during the hot months, offering shocking reductions in prices of nut, egg and stove coal to any one who believed in a hot hereafter this winter. It is the sudden drop in Mr. Fahrenheit's discovery that makes the householder scamper down and commence scratching around for a little kindling wood. He discovers that he has overlooked that commodity as well as the coal, and the old chairs which were chucked down cellar after they became a menace to life, and limb go smash to be offered up in the burnt sacrifice. The ringing notes of the aged family heirlooms getting the axe drown out any toots on the hunter's horn which the song mentions. The crash of steel on wood is mingled with the indescribable utterances of the same householder when the potential kindling is nicked on the wrong spot and goes up for altitude, spanking the woodcutter a whang on the nose.

"WHANG!"

"This is the melancholy time for the devoted little bands of followers who have to give up all hope of wishing the tail-enders up to the top of the percentage column in the big leagues, or even from concentrating on the stragglers in the first division to overcome the lead of the teams which have begun already to compute their slices of the world's championship series.

"Also it's a melancholy set of days for the small boys who have to drag back to the delights of school and shorter hours for disporting on the green. I'm not at all keen about the bracing days of autumn, with the balsamic zephyrs, the golden sunsets and the falling leaves which have to be raked up and burned, making the eyes weep.

"But how could this be a joyous time? You know why this is the saddest month, don't you?"

"No. Why?" asked the Regular Fellow.

"Well, doesn't September mourn?" inquired the Innocent Bystander.

ARMY AND NAVY FOOT BALL TEAMS CLASHED TODAY

Polo Grounds, New York, Nov. 29—The Army triumphed over the Navy here this afternoon by a score of 22 to 9.

Navy scored 3 field goals but could not cross the goal line. Army scored three touchdowns and one goal from placement. Navy scored first in the initial period, but Army overcame this lead by a touchdown in the second period. The Navy evened up by another goal from placement, only to be outdone by the Army who scored two more touchdowns and took one goal although Army worked a few forward passes. Old style football largely was employed by the two teams. Navy had no success with the forward pass.

Polo Grounds, New York, Nov. 29.—Forty thousand spectators, among them the president of the United States, gathered here this afternoon under threatening skies to watch the annual football contest between Annapolis and West Point, the first ever held in this city. The crowd represented high officialdom in Washington, high society in New York, Philadelphia and other cities and the high enthusiasm of mere humble lovers of the game.

The Navy won the toss and selected the west goal, giving the Army the kick-off.

Brown, Navy right guard, put over a place kick from the 30-yard line for Navy's first score. The struggle in this quarter showed neither decidedly superior. The score stood: Army 0, Navy 3.

Goodwin who substituted for Hobbs at fullback for the Army, duplicated Brown's feat in the early part of the second quarter from the 15-yard line, making the score 3 and 3. Brown put over another goal from placement from the Army's 27-yard line, forcing the Navy into the lead again with 6 points.

Hobbs returned at fullback for the Army. The first touchdown followed when Prichard, Army quarter, shot a forward pass to Merrill at right end and the latter went over with the ball. The remainder of the quarter was without sensations.

The score at the end of the first half was: Army 9, Navy 6.

New York, Nov. 29.—Under skies that momentarily threatened rain, a gala crowd of 40,000, among them the president of the United States, surged towards Manhattan today for the annual football game of the army and the navy, played this year for the first time at the Polo grounds.

It was estimated that spectators of the contests would total more than 42,000, a greater number than ever witnessed a world's series baseball contest. There was no early jam at the gate, for those who held tickets got them fair in advance.

President Wilson, after bidding good-bye at the Hoboken pier to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, who left on a honeymoon trip to Europe, planned to go to the game by automobile.

Not in years has New York seen so much gold lace as displayed at hotels today. Prominent army and navy officials were at every hotel. The Middies and Cadets from Annapolis and West Point arrived this morning and at noon went to the Polo grounds to cheer their respective teams.

MEXICO

Rear Admiral Craddock commanding the British steamers in Mexican waters, ranks Rear Admiral Fletcher by virtue of seniority, the British commander has notified the American admiral that he wished to subordinate himself in co-operation with the United States forces. This new evidence of friendly feeling and co-operation between the two admirals was received here with manifest gratification.

Any developments in the Mexican situation seemed to be moving under the surface. There appeared to be no change in the diplomatic situation and no indication of the United States deviating in its attitude of careful watching and patient waiting for the elimination of Huerta. The principal effort of the naval commanders acting with the American consular officers on the oil coast is now being directed to securing such an understanding with the constitutional leaders as will insure the safety of foreign life and property.

El Paso, Nov. 29. The second train load of rebels left Juarez today for the south, where Gen. Villa is sending his men to meet the enemy again. The remainder of Villa's forces will leave later in command of Villa himself. The general is taking with him several railroad work trains and will repair the tracks as he goes along.

Paris, France, Nov. 29.—The Paris Temps today printed a vigorous editorial upon the anarchy in Mexico. The newspaper, in conclusion, says:

"In the presence of death, destruction and ruin, the moment appears to have been reached when humanity and general interest commands all the powers to take concerted action with the United States to compel all parties in Mexico to lay down their arms and bring an end to the intolerable situation."

Washington, Nov. 29.—Official dispatches from Neulineax, capital of Sinoloa, say both Governor Riveros and General Obregon, the civil and military heads, have stated that strict orders have been given to their followers that foreigners and their interests must not be molested.

Vice Consul Robertson and family and several American refugees have left for Monterey. The fate of Chihuahua is not reported.

Brussels, Belgium, Nov. 29.—Mexican agents have sought and are still seeking loans here. It is understood that Luis Delabarra, financial agent in London, of the Mexican government, has entered into negotiations for advances but has not been very successful.

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 29. Between 300 and 400 rebel soldiers had left Juarez today for the south against the federals whom they defeated this week in a battle near Juarez. Gen. Villa personally supervised the loading of the troops. He expected to leave about Tuesday. Villa does not know whether the federals retreated to Chihuahua or have entrenched themselves north of there.

Hermosillo, Mexico, Nov. 29.—It was reported at constitutional headquarters that ammunition and other supplies was scarce at Mexico City and at other points held by the Huerta government. It was asserted that many garrison in southern Mexico would be unable to resist attack. Carranza and his military advisors were inclined to accept the report as true.

Mexico City, Mexico, Nov. 29.—Adherents of the rebel leader Zapata fired upon a passenger train near Ajusco, a town a few miles south of Mexico City. The casualties were insignificant. The rebel band was one of the small scouting parties which again have begun to appear in the federal district.

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 29. Senor Moheno, General Huerta's secretary for foreign relations, went to Vera Cruz today presumably to see John Lind, President Wilson's special representative. A tale of terrible suffering by American and foreign refugees from Torreon, captured by rebels, was brought to Mexico City by W. J. Bornkamp, of Boston, Mass. who arrived with 40 Americans from Torreon. He said that 300 refugees left there, many making their way towards Vera Cruz and other places. Robbed of ammunition by rebels, forced to walk over devastated territory and forced to sleep in the rain, were some of the hardships.

DECISION ON MOVIE LAW DELAYED

Cleveland, O., Nov. 29—There will not be a decision for several days on the complaint brought before Federal Judge Day by the Mutual Film Comany against the Industrial Commission of Ohio and the Board of Censors of Motion Picture Films. Arguments were concluded today and the court ordered submission of briefs. The complainant corporation contends the new law providing for a state board of censors violates the federal constitution.

JURY SECURED IN DR. CRAIG MURDER CASE

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 29.—A jury of farmers was completed today to try Dr. Wm. B. Craig of Indianapolis, on the indictment charging him with the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe. In the opening statement for the prosecution the strength of circumstantial evidence will be pointed out. The state admits it can produce no witnesses who saw Dr. Craig cut Dr. Knabe's throat but they can produce witnesses who saw Dr. Craig coming from the dead woman's apartment on the night of the murder and who noticed he changed his clothes during the evening.

CAME FROM BAVARIA ALONE

New Lexington, O., Nov. 29.—Little eight year old Julia Kohman was with her father on his farm today after completing an 8,000 miles journey from Russia alon. She was delivered by a R. F. D. mail carrier late yesterday at the farm house mail box. A note pinned to her dress showed where she was to be delivered.

FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING PROFESSOR

Columbus, O., Nov. 29.—What authorities believe will have a bearing on Cecil Lavelle, O. S. U. instructor mysteriously missing a week and whose hat and coat were found in a row boat along Lake Ontario, developed here today. Lavelle, according to Ernest O. Hunt, local insurance man, just before his disappearance talked with Hunt about addition of insurance to the amount of $... he already held, and in that discussion told about a detective who had beat an insurance company out of $500,000. Friends of the tutor believe he may have been demented and are not inclined to believe he committed suicide.

WHITE HOUSE PAIR ARE OFF FOR EUROPE

New York, Nov. 29. With a band playing and colors flying, the liner George Washington, of the North German Lloyd line steamed away from her pier off Hoboken shortly after 10 a. m. today, bearing Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre, the White House wedding couple. To the very last they outwitted the newspaper men and sailed for Bremen without being photographed or interviewed.

President Wilson arrived at the pier before the honeymooners. Immediately after they sailed the president left for the home of Colonel House and after luncheon attended the army and navy football game. Tonight he will attend the theatre and leave at midnight for Washington.

COPPER STRIKE NEARS END

Calumet, Mich., Nov. 29. The end of the strike of 15,000 copper workers in Northern Michigan was forecasted today when the mine managers issued a joint statement offering to concede all but two of the demands made by the strikers. Recognition of the Western Federation of Miners was refused by the mine owners.
